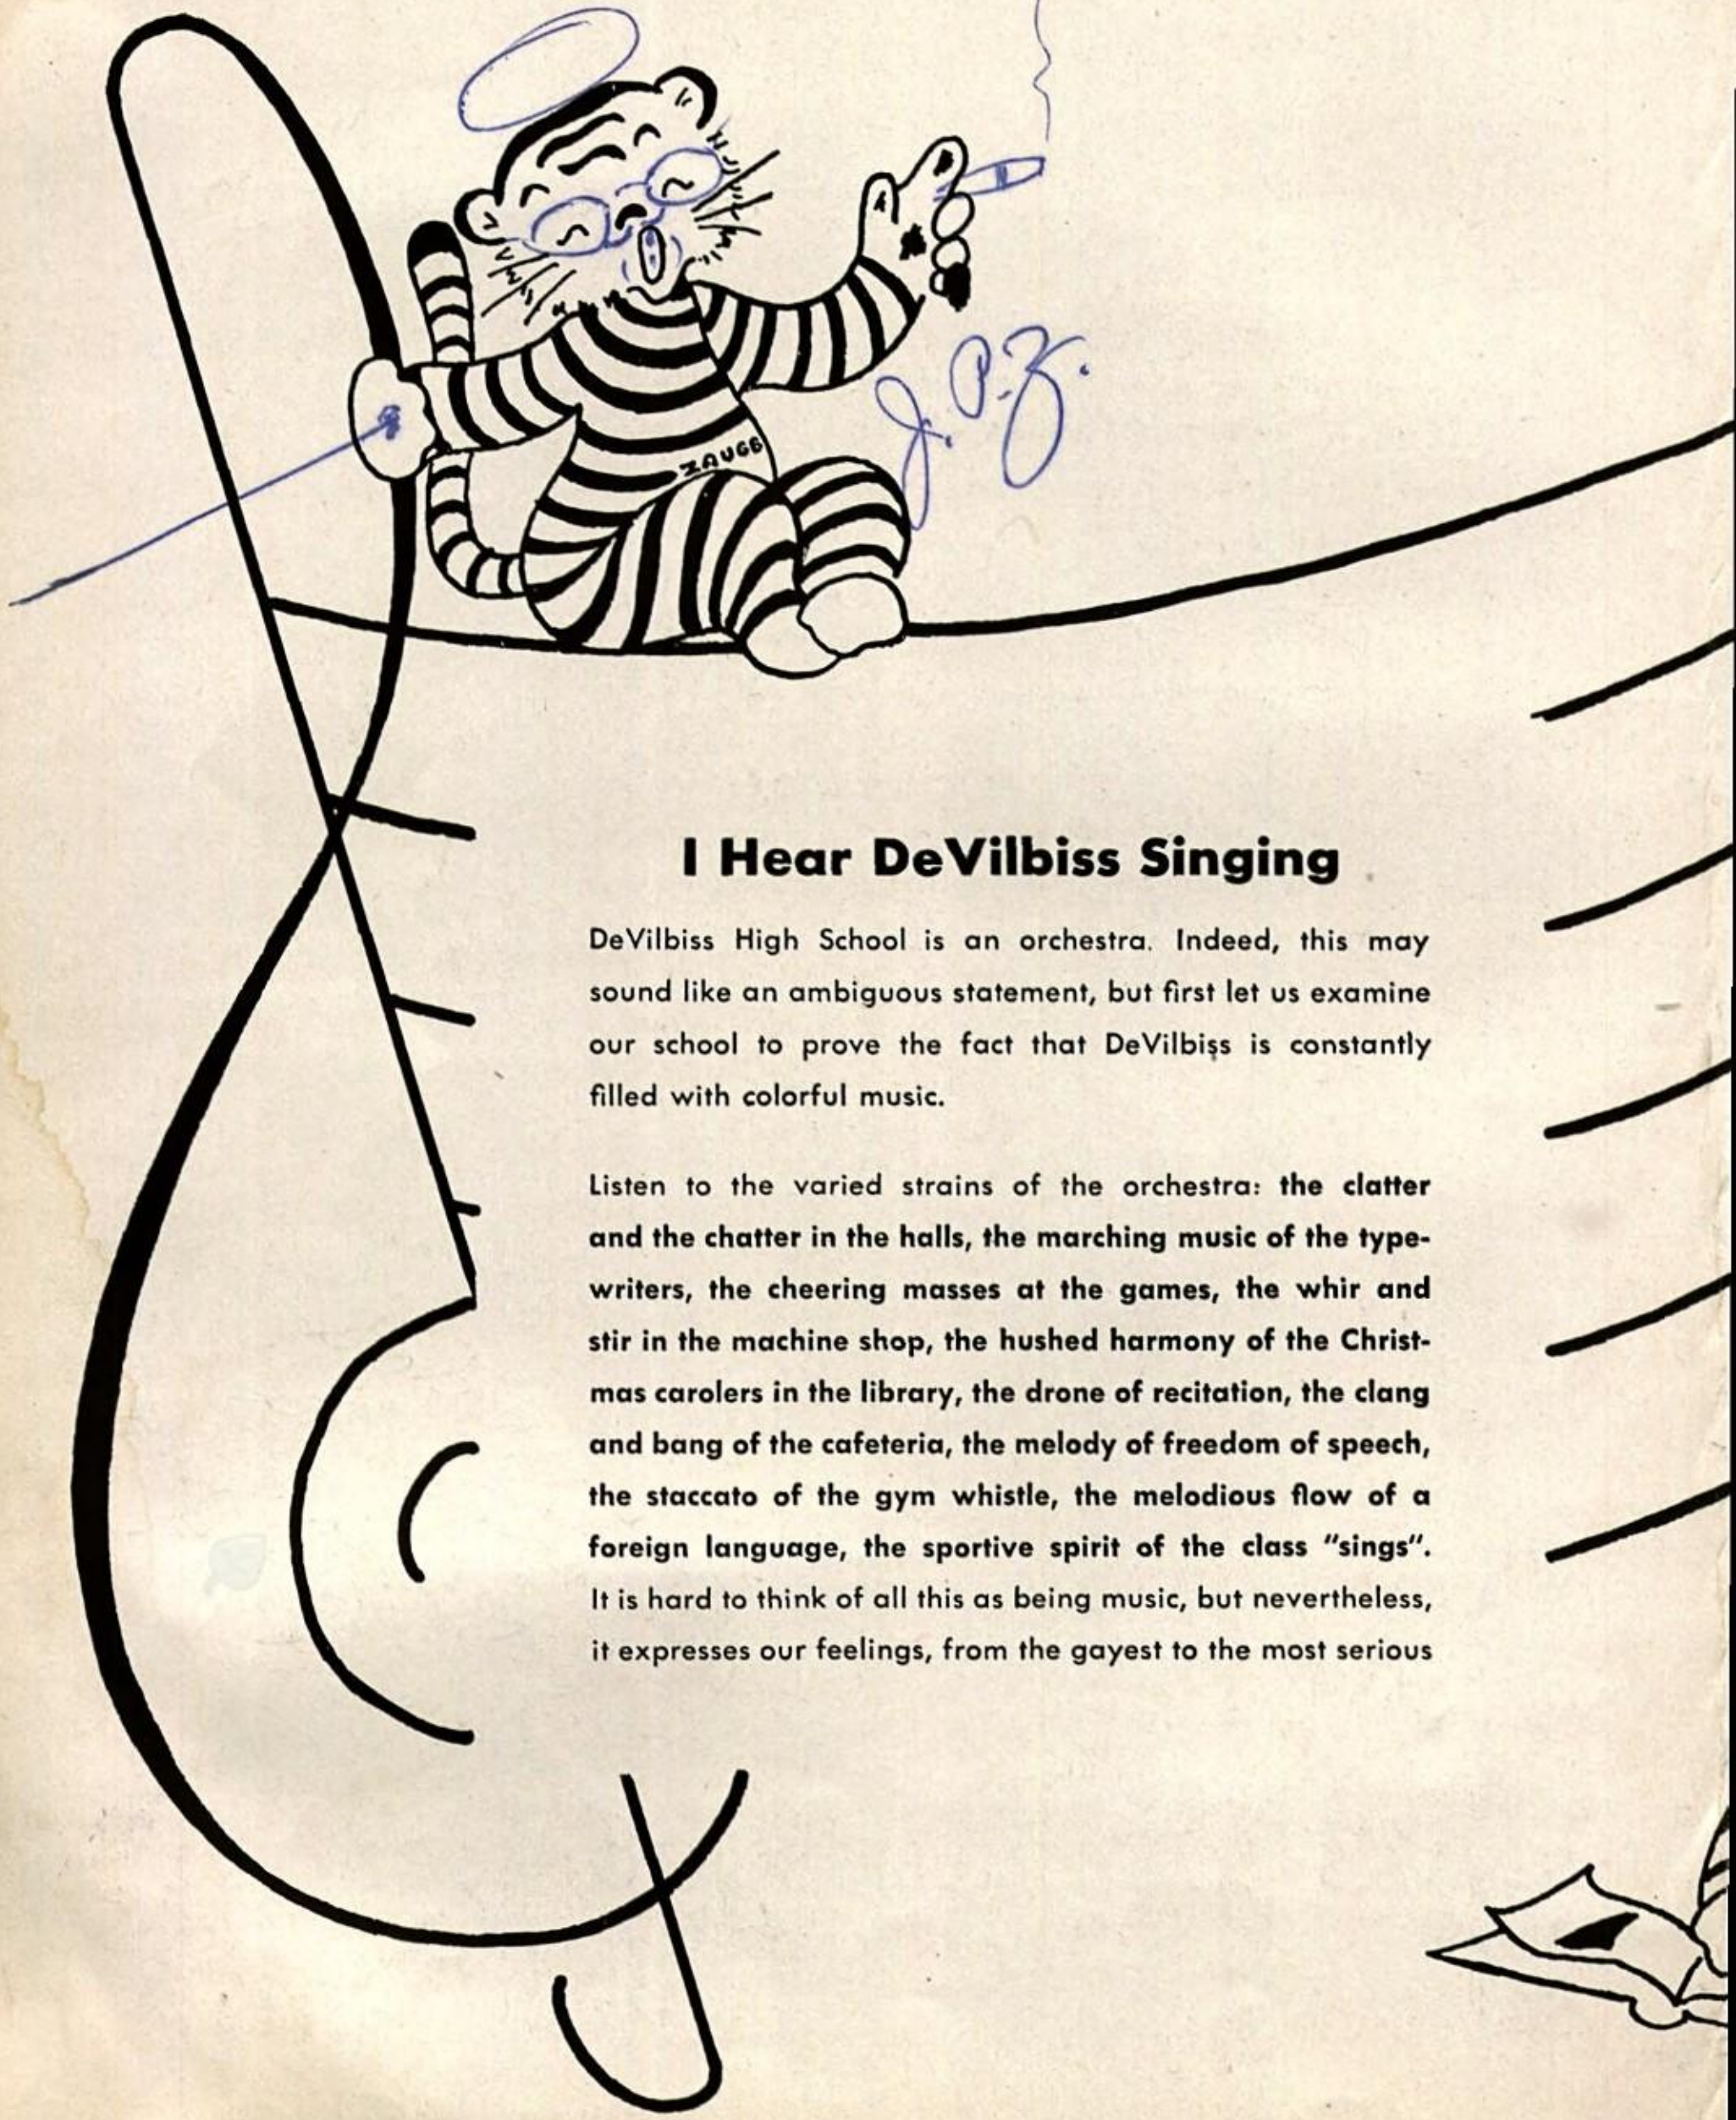
THOMAS A. DEVILBISS HIGH SCHOOL

TOLEDO, OHIO



I Hear DeVilbiss Singing

DeVilbiss High School is an orchestra. Indeed, this may sound like an ambiguous statement, but first let us examine our school to prove the fact that DeVilbiss is constantly filled with colorful music.

Listen to the varied strains of the orchestra: the clatter and the chatter in the halls, the marching music of the typewriters, the cheering masses at the games, the whir and stir in the machine shop, the hushed harmony of the Christmas carolers in the library, the drone of recitation, the clang and bang of the cafeteria, the melody of freedom of speech, the staccato of the gym whistle, the melodious flow of a foreign language, the sportive spirit of the class "sings". It is hard to think of all this as being music, but nevertheless, it expresses our feelings, from the gayest to the most serious —it has melody, harmony, rhythm, but most importantly it portrays the spirit and life of our school.

Here, just as in a real orchestra, the best music is produced only when everyone is playing "his particular instrument" to the best of his abilities. Unless all the musicians co-operate, the harmony will not be rich and vibrant. We must keep practicing until that day when as seniors we play our "Grand Finale". Although this Finale is an end to high school days, it is only a prelude to maturity. We still must continue to practice, striving for perfection.

This year the "Pot o' Gold" acknowledges DeVilbiss' complete full schedule music department. It is proud of the work done during this past year and extends best wishes for an even better and brighter future.

Now you may see in how many ways music, keynote of our school, is omnipresent in DeVilbiss High School.

MRS. CARRIE WHALEY

Interested and animated, blue eyes sparkling and lips smiling, Mrs. Whaley put the final touches on Scene IV of the 1947 DeViltries. She loved this scene where, earth left behind, the space ship soared into the highest heavenlies. The music must soar too and she had planned it that way, fitting into her scheme the finest and best of all. At the end, because of its message as well as its beauty, she had put the lovely choral number, "Preludes to Eternity". Lights, scenery, music—all were arranged now. Then she stepped out into the twilight, tired but satisfied. "It's going to be good," she said. A few hours later she herself had slipped into eternity, leaving Scene IV as a memorial that seemed almost foreordained.

The song was to be the climax of an unusual scene; the scene was the climax of a great show; the show was the climax of a gracious and vital life for which it truly was a "prelude to eternity".

But for those of us who knew and loved her, for a long time to come, Carrie Whaley will stand in the wings and walk the halls, interested and animated, blue eyes sparkling and lips smiling, putting the final touches on some one of the innumerable things she was always doing for DeVilbiss.

OUR DEANS

Dear Seniors,

Graduation is the end of a chapter, a chapter enlivened by hard work, lasting friendships, long-remembered triumphs, and the inspiration and friendship of inspired teachers. (In some cases, too, there have been extra pages seasoned by deans' summons, blue slips, and seventh hour classes.)

Commencement is well named, for if graduation means the end of a period of life, commencement is the beginning of a glorious new chapter full of promise, high adventure, and new and ever-increasing opportunities for young men and women of vision, daring, character, and a capacity for hard work.

To all who leave DeVilbiss High School to go into industry or military service, to enter college or to establish new homes, may this new chapter mean broader fields of service and even greater success and happiness.

RUSSELL BROWN,
Dean of Boys

. . . . Through the media of the classroom, sports, clubs, and numerous other activities we have tried to teach you a way of life that will bring you the greatest happiness and the attainment of your cherished goal.

As you step out into the world of men and women, all of whom are seeking some form of recognition, remember that mere attainment of your goal cannot bring you complete satisfaction. True greatness can be achieved only by means of wisdom, kindness, tolerance toward your fellow men, and by continued progress toward a goal.

Keep on keeping on, and the glory of life will be yours.

MILDRED PASCH,
Dean of Girls

GUIDE AND ADVISE

Dear Students:

The activities of a school have become one of the essential parts of our modern education. The older theory was that education was mainly mental in nature and concern. Today the theme of the new education is all-aroundness. It recognizes that when a child walks into the school all of him comes in; previously the mind was the entire and only concern.

Today in our complicated system of living it has become recognized that the student must be developed entirely. Not only must he be developed mentally but he must be developed in a manner whereby he becomes acquainted with situations that will face him later on in life.

The activities of a school furnish both a varied and complete opportunity for students to acquaint themselves with the many situations that are necessary in the development of a feeling of responsibility and duties in becoming a good citizen.

Opportunities that are parallel to those the student must meet later on in life are afforded in DeVilbiss High School. Show us a good citizen and we will show you an asset to the community.

Industrial Arts Department

The Industrial Arts Department was opened in 1931 with eight laboratories. Ever since that date hundreds of students have received careful training and guidance in the courses which this department offers.

The classes now taught in this field are: Industrial Survey, Cabinet Making, Radio, Electricity, Mechanical Drawing, and Architectural Drawing. A class in Map Drawing was added to the curriculum of the department during the second semester of this year. It is the first time that this course has ever been offered in our school.

During the war there were difficulties in Industrial Arts such as lack of materials and personnel, but now the situation is becoming less critical. The instructors hope that they will soon be able to reopen the sections in automotives and printing.

This department, which has prepared so many boys for useful vocations, occupies the back part of our school known as the "shops".

Home Economics Department

The objective of the courses in Home Economics is to teach girls to be more aware of the uses of home economics in their daily lives. These courses enable girls to assume their share of responsibility in the home. Other aims are to develop the girls' abilities to select and make clothing that is attractive, and to teach them interest in good grooming.

Science Department

In the age of the atom bomb, bacterial warfare, and rocket planes it is impossible to forget that we are living in a scientific age. The Science Department at DeVilbiss does not attempt to explain everything concerned with these inventions, but it is designed to help the student understand the world about him.

The instructors of General Science, Biology, Physiology, Chemistry, and Physics aim to help the individual, school, and community to understand the factors of environment, and to encourage cooperation on community problems of health and welfare. They endeavor to stimulate thinking among the students and to interest them in modern developments in equipment and recent advances in all fields. By developing the powers of observation, and by teaching the scientific method, this department hopes to inspire students to do research work in science, or to apply their learning to whatever occupation they enter.

From the skeleton to the Bunsen burners and test tubes, the students always find the equipment and experiments interesting and instructive.

Ever since DeVilbiss opened, its students have learned the fundamentals and the new developments in science—the basis of our modern way of life—from the careful guidance of our faculty.

English Department

One of the most important departments in any high school is the English Department, for it is one of the few divisions that reaches every student.

One of the objectives of this field is to enable a student to recognize good literature and to work with it to the extent of appreciating and understanding it. Other factors which a student should acquire in these courses are the ability to read with ease and the power to concentrate. When a person has learned to compress his thoughts in pleasure-reading and to select the most important ideas in technical material, he has gained a power from which he will profit during the rest of his life. Furthermore, this department gives the student a chance to express himself orally as well as on paper; at the same time he becomes more conscious of correct grammar and punctuation.

Any student interested and especially talented in Radio Production, Radio Script, and Dramatics has the opportunity to study courses in this broadening field.

The Speech Class aims to help a person overcome his self-consciousness when speaking before a group, to teach him the importance of clearer enunciation, and to enable him to capture the interest of his audience.

Mathematics Department

Although mathematics is not a required subject, it is not difficult to sense the rising importance of this course in our modern age of mechanics. In the future there will be few jobs open for men who have not had mathematical training of some kind. The course in General Mathematics provides an opportunity for those, who are not planning to go to college, to take mathematics. Introductory Algebra and Plane Geometry are courses which have always been popular with the students. The courses in Advanced Algebra, Trigonometry, and Solid Geometry are designed for those who are planning to continue their study of mathematics in college.

A good student of mathematics must be alert and accurate, he must have a sense of reason, patience and determination to sit down and tackle a problem. A concentrated study in this field can help the pupil acquire these desirable traits.

Nursing

Home Nursing is a very enriching and worth-while course for girls to study. During the first semester first-aid methods are taught. This enables students to render help in the first-aid room. During the second semester field trips are taken to many public offices, institutions, and hospitals. One of the most interesting and unusual trips is the one to the State Hospital. The experience and knowledge gained while studying this course helps to develop ability and personality.

NURSE: Miss B. Faye Miller

Art Department

The Art Department of DeVilbiss is an important one because it strives to show its pupils how art enters into their lives every day.

Courses that are planned for students who are interested in entering business art are Fashion Illustration and Commercial Art. Crafts, General Arts, and Painting are offered to students who like to create with various art materials. Whether a student is interested in art as a high school major, whether he is interested in it as a vocation, or whether he enjoys it as a hobby, he will find capable guidance from our art instructors.

AT RIGHT: Miss Mildred E. Johnston, Miss Amy L. Kimpton.

Social Studies Department

The primary purpose of the Social Studies Department is to prepare students for adult citizenship. Realizing the struggles of groups of people in the past to live with each other helps us to see methods of solving our present and future political, economic, and social problems. We review the past in order to better qualify us to analyze these problems.

For students with a college objective a course of Ancient and Medieval History or one of Modern History is offered for pupils who wish a view of world history in a one year course.

The real backbone of citizenship training is in the year course of American History and Government.

For seniors a definite analysis in contemporary business and social activities and a course of the life of our neighboring Latin American nations is available.

All through the three year curricula current events are taught once a week.

Commercial Department

The department that gives those students who are interested in business training and secretarial work an opportunity to become acquainted with typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, and junior business training, is the Commercial Department. If a student is planning to work in an office, he should begin in high school to build for his career. Many girls have the opportunity of working with Miss Pasch in her office for practical experience.

One doesn't necessarily have to be interested in working in an office before studying a commercial course. Even though a student does not plan to enter the business world, he will find that the knowledge of shorthand and typing is an invaluable advantage.

Library

To give service and guidance to the students and the faculty is the aim of the DeVilbiss High School Library. Everyone finds, whether he is searching for reference material or looking for an exciting novel, that the library staff is always eager to help.

Since 1931 the library's book collection has grown from 2,000 volumes to a present 12,000 volumes. The circulation sometimes reaches three hundred books daily, not including those used in the library. The library also subscribes to more than seventy-five periodicals for information and pleasure reading.

Boys' Athletics

No school would be complete without an efficient Boys' Athletic Department. The enjoyment of playing is taught as the foremost object in the gymnastic program and, after that, the success and competition of the game. In class the freshmen and sophomores participate in tumbling, volleyball, basketball, and other games. Their grades are based on achievement tests. Juniors and seniors participate in wrestling, basketball and boxing, and they also have achievement tests. In every class sportsmanship is taught and is on display every minute.

Girls' Physical Education

Physical Education as an integral part of school work must contribute to the development of the "whole person".

The main objectives of the girls' physical education program are: to teach the mind as well as the body to be healthy, to assist the girl in acquiring the ability to "get along" with her companions, to put more emphasis on the fun of the games and the pleasure of dancing, to develop the spirit of fair play not only in games but also in everyday living, and to mold the girls into our democratic way of life.

Foreign Language Department

Although it may seem to be "all Greek to you," foreign language students will tell you that the field of language is not only interesting, but also serves an increasingly important part in strengthening the bonds of friendship and business between nations of the world today.

The languages taught at DeVilbiss are: Latin, Spanish, French, and German. Through a study of these languages the student learns to apply the principles of grammar to his reading, writing, and conversation.

It is also realized that a knowledge of the civilization of another nation is essential to understanding. Consequently a study of their customs, fine arts, government, history, ideals and philosophy is correlated with the regular work.

Our foreign languages department has shown itself in the past to be one of the most interesting, popular, and colorful in the school.

Mr. J. Philip Zaugg, Music Director.

Music Department

The Music Department of DeVilbiss, under the direction of Mr. Philip Zaugg, has several general and specific aims. Among its general aims are the contribution to the student's personality and development, the recognition and encouragement of talent among students, and the provision of worth-while recreation.

In addition to these general aims, the department has these several specific aims: providing musically talented students with a broad musical background, developing the art of performing in public with dignity and poise, and supplying information concerning various types of musical careers.

DeVilbiss' musical program provides talented students with many opportunities of expressing themselves in music.

Office

The school office is ably managed by Miss Lanz, senior clerk, Mrs. Tanber, school treasurer; Mrs. Tippett, textbook clerk; and Miss Weber, attendance clerk. Together, these women are responsible for all the clerical work of DeVilbiss. The students and faculty are grateful for the many types of aid that they receive from the office staff.

Custodians

Frank Gordon, chief engineer, is responsible for the heating, ventilating, plumbing, and electrical equipment of the school. With the help of his three assistants he keeps the building comfortable in winter and summer.

Mr. Robinson is the man behind the neat and clean appearance of our grounds and building.

Cafeteria

Mrs. Hayes, who has been our competent dietitian and cafeteria manager for the last eleven years, plans the student specials, prepares the food orders, and balances the monthly accounts. In spite of the increase in food prices, she still manages to buy the best quality of food for the students at a reasonable rate. The large well-equipped kitchen is kept immaculate by her thirty workers. Cooperating with Mrs. Hayes are the many students who work for a cafeteria credit.

Nifty-Fifties

Those dancing couples in the picture represent only a few of the four hundred forty-five members of the Nifty-Fifties Club. As early as last spring delegates from the grade schools met to plan this freshman organization. When school opened in the fall, each homeroom elected a representative for the club's guiding committee. This committee and all Nifty-Fifties' activities are advised by Miss Mildred Schmidt and Mr. Lampton. Mrs. Ernest Townsend and Mrs. Noble Bray, mothers of members, are co-chairmen of the Parents Committee. Seven parties have been planned for this year. Whenever a party is to be planned, the students in two or three freshmen homerooms take charge of the event; thus, the pupils in each homeroom have had the fun of making arrangements for some party. At every affair a special floor show is presented. Chan Nauts usually serves as master of ceremonies. One of the favorite singers is Bernard Falor who has appeared on most of the shows. As long as this club functions, no member of the class of 1950 needs to feel that he is not a part of the school activities.

Forty-Niners

Anyone who remembers the enthusiastic Forty-Niners of last year will be pleased to know that this group has been equally active this year. The class leaders and their committees deserve the credit for planning many events. The president, Chuck Swarts, and the vice-president, Bill Stansbury, have the responsibility of guiding the dance committee. In December this group sponsored a Christmas party and dance combined. On April eleventh a dance "April Showers" was given by the Sophomore Class. The finances of all affairs are taken care of by Jeanne Read and her committee. The program committee under the direction of Phyllis Butler, class secretary, is a very active group. Every other week the different home rooms present a program. The inspiring Easter service which all students attended was one in this series of sophomore home room presentations. When Mrs. Carrie Whaley died in March, the Sophomore Class lost an especially close friend, for she was its beloved adviser. The students are grateful to Mr. Pollman for his constant help and his willingness to advise the Sophomores at all times.

We of homeroom 326 wish to introduce ourselves. We are average members of the Junior Class and have the same interests as any other students of our age. We are very active in school organizations. Members of the Junior Friendship Club are: Carol Novak, Maria Ruegge, Jeanne Reisler, Mary Lou David, Connie Herbst, and Juanita Dipman, who is the treasurer of the club. JoAnn Garry and Jackie Haney belong to the Spanish Club. Hi-Y members from 326 are: Bob Drake, Hiett Ward, and Tom Marquardt. JoAnn Garry is a member of Sorelles, and Mary Lou David is a Sub-Deb. Leslie Noaker is a member of the Engineers and Chess Clubs. How is that for school activity? We think it is pretty fine.

At the beginning of the year we elected Connie Herbst to lead us as president, Mary Lou David was chosen as vice-president, and Jackie Haney jots down the minutes. Pat McKibben brings back the reports from the Student Council meetings. Our very dependable Red Cross Representative is Juanita Dipman. Marilyn Weiker collected the money for our P.T.A. memberships. Marian Ruegge picks up dimes for the Prism and Carol Novak begs us to buy more Savings Stamps.

We are very well represented in athletics with Bob Drake and Don Dierks on the football team, Larry Rowan on the wrestling team, Danny Gernheuser on the cross country team, Tom Marquardt, Al Noller and Chuck Swyers on the swimming team and Hiett Ward on the tennis team.

The Honor Roll for the first semester consisted of Juanita Dipman and Leslie Noaker. Of course, in the future this will be improved 100%.

Serving on various committees are: JoAnn Garry, Junior - Senior Farewell Committee, and Social Committee of the Student Council; Jackie Haney, J-Hop Committee, DeViltries, and Night Relays committees; Jimmie Robertson, DeViltries; and Marilyn Weiker, Junior Play Committee.

With all these active students and our adviser, popular Miss Amy Kimpton, to guide us we have had a successful homeroom for three years. We are looking forward to an even better one next year.

Mrs. Ethel Pasquier—201

On a typical day in 201, you will find Mrs. Pasquier's "Happy 32" engaged in various activities. Madelyn Sutton, president, opens the discussion while either Barbara Tilley, Junior Executive Committee member, or Myrtle Hein, Pot O' Gold representative, tries to coax money out of somewhat conservative students. John Mathews, vice-president, discusses his algebra with Mrs. Pasquier while Shirley Finch combs her brunette tresses until asked to stop. Donna Fick's constant giggling over facetious happenings drowns out the sound of Jackie Brenneman's report on Student Council activities. Tom Vernier, of the varsity football team, and Gilbert Punches, of the swimming team, are the chief athletes of the room. Kate Emmert, secretary, studies for history tests while Owen Gregory analyzes poetry. During the Y.W.C.A. drive Sue Streicher collected donations. Helping to spread school news is Mary Rowland, Prism solicitor. John Lang handles financial matters. Honorable mention is given to Jackie Brenneman and Kenneth Dowdney for having a place on the Honor Roll.

By the time the class has finally settled down to study, the bell has rung and another half hour has ended in 201.

Ah, yes, we have a gay time in 104. Nothing bothers us. Isn't Marilyn Brubaker our president and James Whitten, our vice-president? Who could go wrong with leaders like that? Lois Foor is our efficient secretary and Alonzo Sargent is the money man, our treasurer. The Red Cross news is brought to us by Arylene Stoll; we keep up on the latest doings of the Student Council through Helen Jo Link; Marie Denman takes care of our P.T.A. business; and Marie Pollitz sees that the cafeteria is left clean. We are always well informed on everything in the school, because Joan Thompson has plenty of Prisms to sell; and Sally Balsmeyer collects for the Pot O' Gold. Mrs. Stoll and Mrs. Balsmeyer are our able homeroom mothers.

Our homeroom is active in committee work. For proof, we point to Miriam Hudson on Junior Publicity and Welfare; Suzanne Lattin on Junior-Senior Farewell and Welfare; Marilyn Brubaker on J-Hop; Helen Jo Link on J-Hop and Social; and Virginia Butler, Arylene Stoll, and Joan Thompson on Junior Play. Our contributions to the football team are Bill Blank and Joe Robie.

Surely you will agree with us when we exclaim, "Our homeroom is O.K.!"

If you notice students dashing to class at 12:35 every day, they are probably the pupils from homeroom 106. A few minutes later everyone has always settled down to work.

When we have special business to attend to, Ted Rohweder, president, takes over. In his absence, Ted Miller, vice-president, is in charge. Nancy Anderson, secretary, takes care of her various jobs and Nancy Alliman wishes for some money to count. Our Prism sales are high because Ruth Launer is our hard working salesman. Always busy with their Pot O' Gold work are Carolyn Bowers and Marilyn Ruhl. We get out Student Council reports from Bob Straight.

Many of our students are active in sports and other activities around school. The pride of our homeroom is Fritz Lauffer, who is president of the Junior Class and will be co-captain of next year's football team. We have others of whom we are also proud. For instance, Jim Maher is one of the outstanding players on our basketball team and both he and Fritz are on the track team. Leslie Gerke, an able cheerleader, helps to raise school spirit at all our football and basketball games.

Room 106 has many members in different clubs. The Pericleans, French Club, Junior Friendship, and the Hi-Y are all actively represented. Some of the Junior Class committees have representatives from our room too. Marilyn Ruhl was co-chairman of the Pumpkin Prance Committee and Nancy Anderson also helped to make that dance a big success. Les Gerke serves on the J-Hop Committee.

Maybe it is because of all our other activities but Nancy Anderson and Lois Campbell are the only two students who have achieved a position on the Honor Roll this year. With the guidance of Mrs. Mills, everyone is working harder to improve his standing during our junior year.

Mrs. Dorothy Mills—106

TOP ROW: Alliman, Nancy; Anderson, Nancy; Bowers, Carolyn; Callahan, Ira; Connin, Robert; Coombs, Kenneth; Cuprys, Joan. SECOND ROW: Fischer, Marilyn; Gerke, Leslie; Getz, Jacquelyn; Grodi, Eugene; Harrison, David; Hingst, John; Jadel, Jack; Jones, Gladys; Keck, Gerald. Holding the reins of Miss Lukens' homeroom, room 110, are Kenny Culp, president, and Suzie Boesel, vice-president. Performing the secretarial duties and an active member of the homeroom is Barbara Lukens; determining financial status is Nancy Williams.

One of the unusual and most outstanding acts of the executive body of 110 has been to draw up a constitution in accordance with our national one but fitting the needs of our own homeroom. The Preamble states: "We the students of homeroom 110 in order to form a better homeroom, to establish justice, to insure order, and to promote the general welfare draw up this constitution."

Four members of our homeroom are on the Honor Roll: Sue Boesel, Barbara Lukens, Peggy Lukens (who is our Pot O' Gold solicitor), and Jean Cunningham. Any student who holds this record should be proud of such an achievement.

Our annual Red Cross box was quickly filled this year. Lucille Abel, our representative, willingly took on this task and it was through her enthusiasm that we were encouraged to meet our quota.

John Luthy, who is one of our cheerleaders, is our Student Council representative. You might think that this is too big a title for such a little boy, but he has handled the job splendidly.

Representing our homeroom on the Junior Executive Committee is Nancy Bell. We feel that this committee is doing an excellent job of helping the juniors to become one of the schools most promising classes.

When every other Tuesday rolls around, we buy our Prisms from our treasurer, Nancy.

Two star athletes also come from room 110—Johnny McWilliam of basketball fame who has participated in almost every game this season, and Wesley Coen of football prominence.

Miss Ruth Lukens—110

This is written for you, who in some future year will be browsing around in the attic and come across a slender red book—no not THAT book—your yearbook. As you are glancing through it, one page will arrest your eye. Why? Because you see especially familiar pictures on it.

"Why, there is the boy whose chemistry I used to copy!" Don't let your better-half catch you gazing longingly at one particular blond. You do remember her don't you? "Do I remember! Why, how can I forget the time when Blondie —— —— ?"

"Did I look like that then?" And so you will ramble on, but, if your eyes should move just a little from the pictures, you will see what has been written here.

Remember this was the year we had an election at the end of the first semester. Bob Eikost was chosen to lead us as president, taking over Betty Wanner's position.

Raymond Smith took over when Bob wasn't around. Leland Moree did the same thing for Betty Wanner.

Since we never had any money and since there were no meetings to take notes about, we whittled the positions down to one. Yvonne Martin was elected to Dick Forrester's position as secretary-treasurer.

"Hey, things are coming back to me now," you say. "Wasn't that the year we had a 'White Elephant' Committee? We never did have the auction. Who was on that committee anyway?"

Bob Eikost, Marilyn Mersereau and Dick Forrester is the answer to that one.

Dick Schumm was our Prism representative. Marilyn Mersereau, Melvin Dohlman and Raymond Smith were the only ones who managed to make the Honor Roll that year. Ted Bodenmiller, Reed Hunter, Dick Forrester and Tim Green were on the varsity football team and Bob Eikost, the varsity basketball team. Do you remember?

Miss Ethel Willoughby—227

Homeroom 119 is a circus parade. Mr. S. B. Emery leads as adviser followed by the officers: Iris Keller, secretary; and Jack Schulz, treasurer. Then Shirley Keats marches by as Pot O' Gold solicitor, Executive Committee member, co-chairman of the Junior Play Committee and member of the Junior Friendship Club. Anne Hasson comes directly behind, for she is a member of the White Elephant Committee, member of the Deviltries' cast, and member of the Junior Friendship Club. The lone member of the Honor Roll is Nancy Prottengeier. She is also co-chairman of the Junior-Senior Farewell Dance and member of the Spanish Club. John Browning is the swimming athlete of the homeroom and represents it on the Junior-Senior Farewell Dance Committee. Nancy Wittman and Eleanor Hickerson, stars of the parade, are members of the Junior Friendship Club. Jack Schulz makes his appearance as a star on the track team. Two sad figures are Bob Lowrie and Gloria Rank, who are mourning over their transfer from DeVilbiss to Scott.

Because room 119 is like a circus parade, we enjoy it and wish it could stay like this forever. Many friendships are formed here, and we look forward to another year together.

Miss Cynthia Ewing—224

England may have some strange things, but we are sure that Miss Ewing has never seen anything quite like our homeroom before. So to help her face it, we elected Vernon Flickinger as president. To help Vernon, we elected Anna Lee Smith, vice-president; Marion Rees, secretary; and Ronald Rehn, treasurer.

However, there are no minutes because we have never had a meeting and the treasurer gives no reports because there is no money.

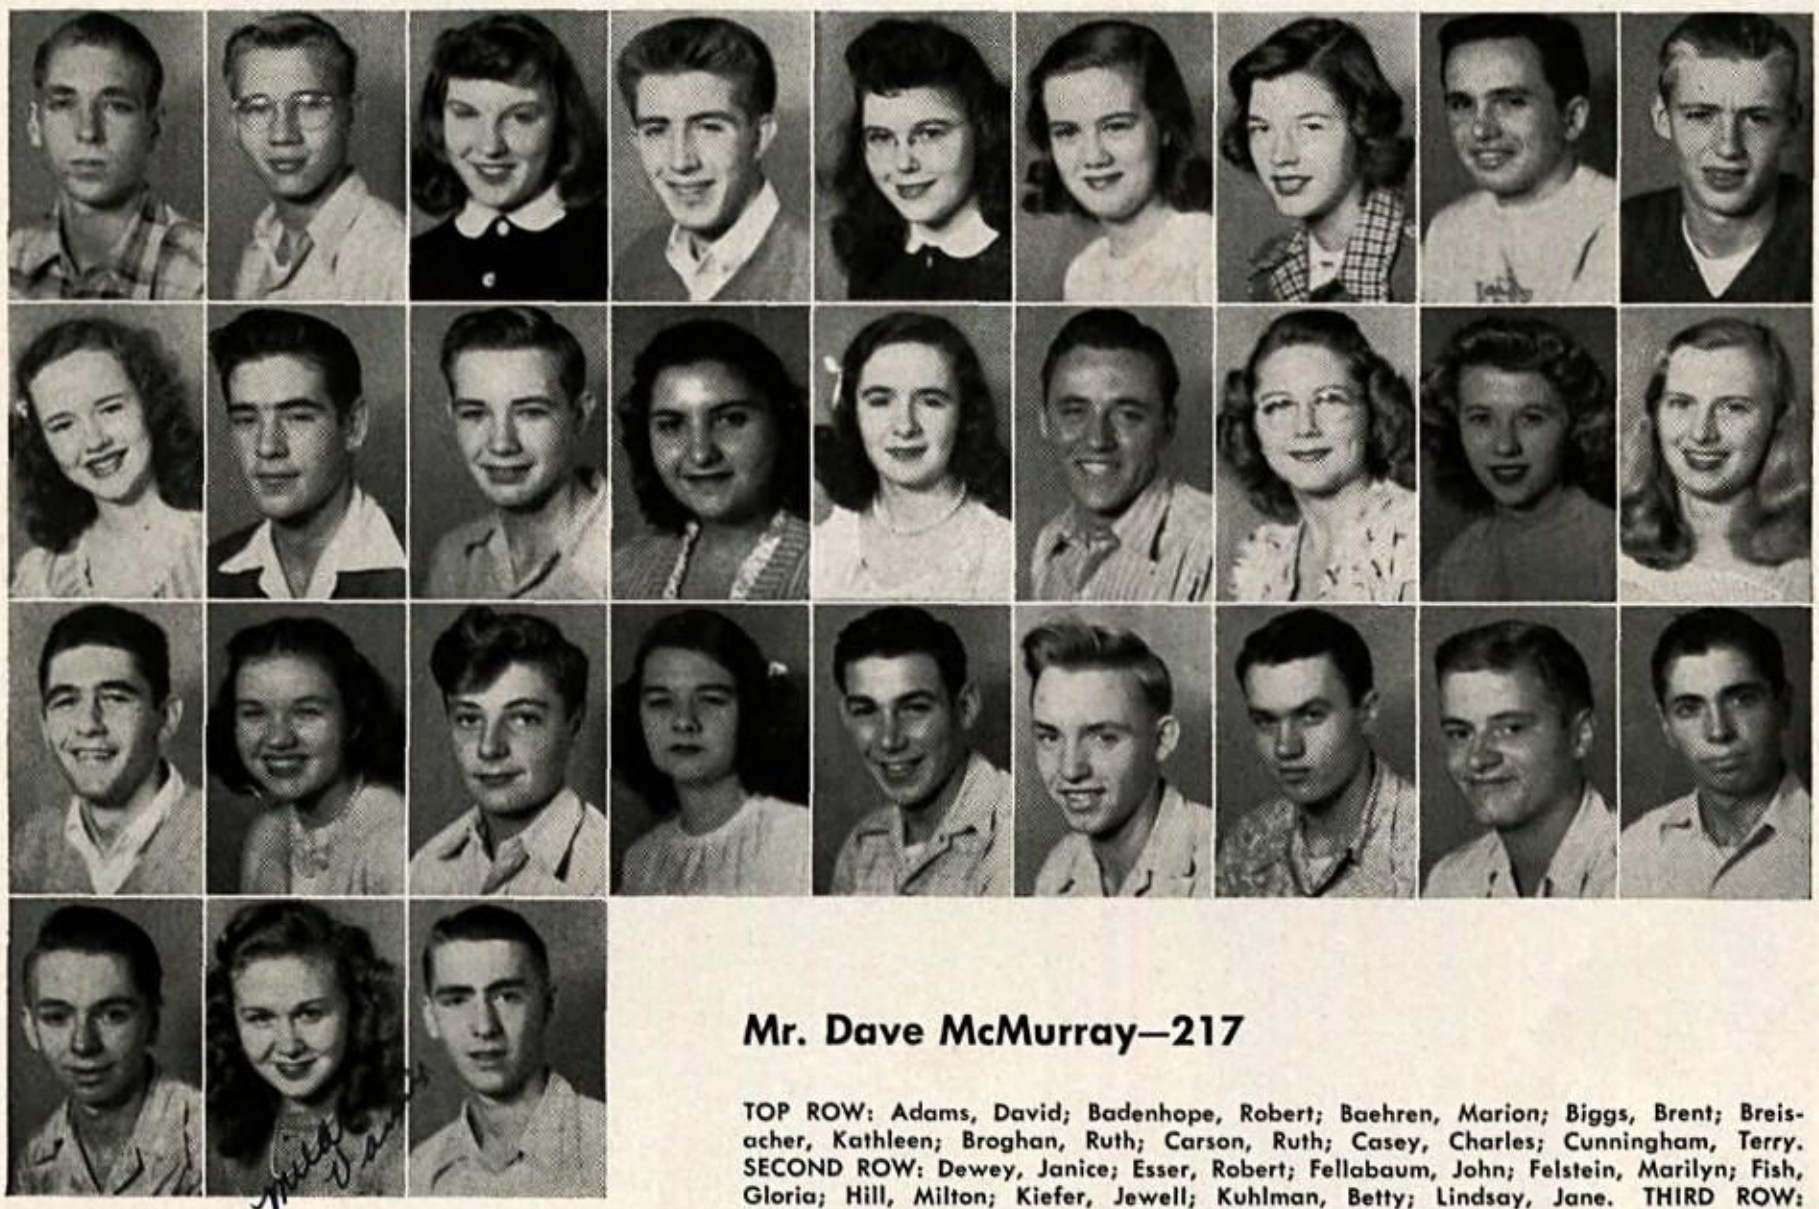
Our enthusiastic representatives are as follows: Jean Parkes, Red Cross representative; Gordon Getz, Pot O' Gold solicitor; Allen Wilhelm, Prism solicitor; Joanne Lankenau, Student Council representative; and Bob Behrens, Junior Executive Committee member.

Then, of course, no group is complete without an athlete. We have two: Vernon Flickinger, who is on the lightweight basketball team, and Jack Hirsch, who is the manager of the swimming team.

Sociability is our hobby. To prove it, we had a Christmas party under the chairmanship of Marilyn Power.

Even so, we know that with all play and recreation, Tad won't be at graduation, so we try not to let our extra-curricular activities interfere with our studies. This year we put the following names on the Honor Roll: Marion Rees, Joanne Lankenau, Jean Davies and Ronald Rehn.

Miss Ewing will not be with us our senior year for she is going back to England. When she is remembering all her American friends, we hope we are included because we will be thinking of her.



Mr. Dave McMurray—217

We of Mr. McMurray's homeroom started our junior year with the election of Terry Cunningham as president. Every day is always the same except for Prism or Pot O' Gold day when we see Carol Michelsen asking for money. We are represented at all the Red Cross meetings by Gloria Fish; Tom Ludwig is always seen at the Student Council meetings. In the cafeteria is our captain, Betty Kuhlman.

There are only three members of 217 on the Honor Roll this year. Those who met the requirements are Ruth Broghan, Jane Lindsay, and Brunny Messinger.

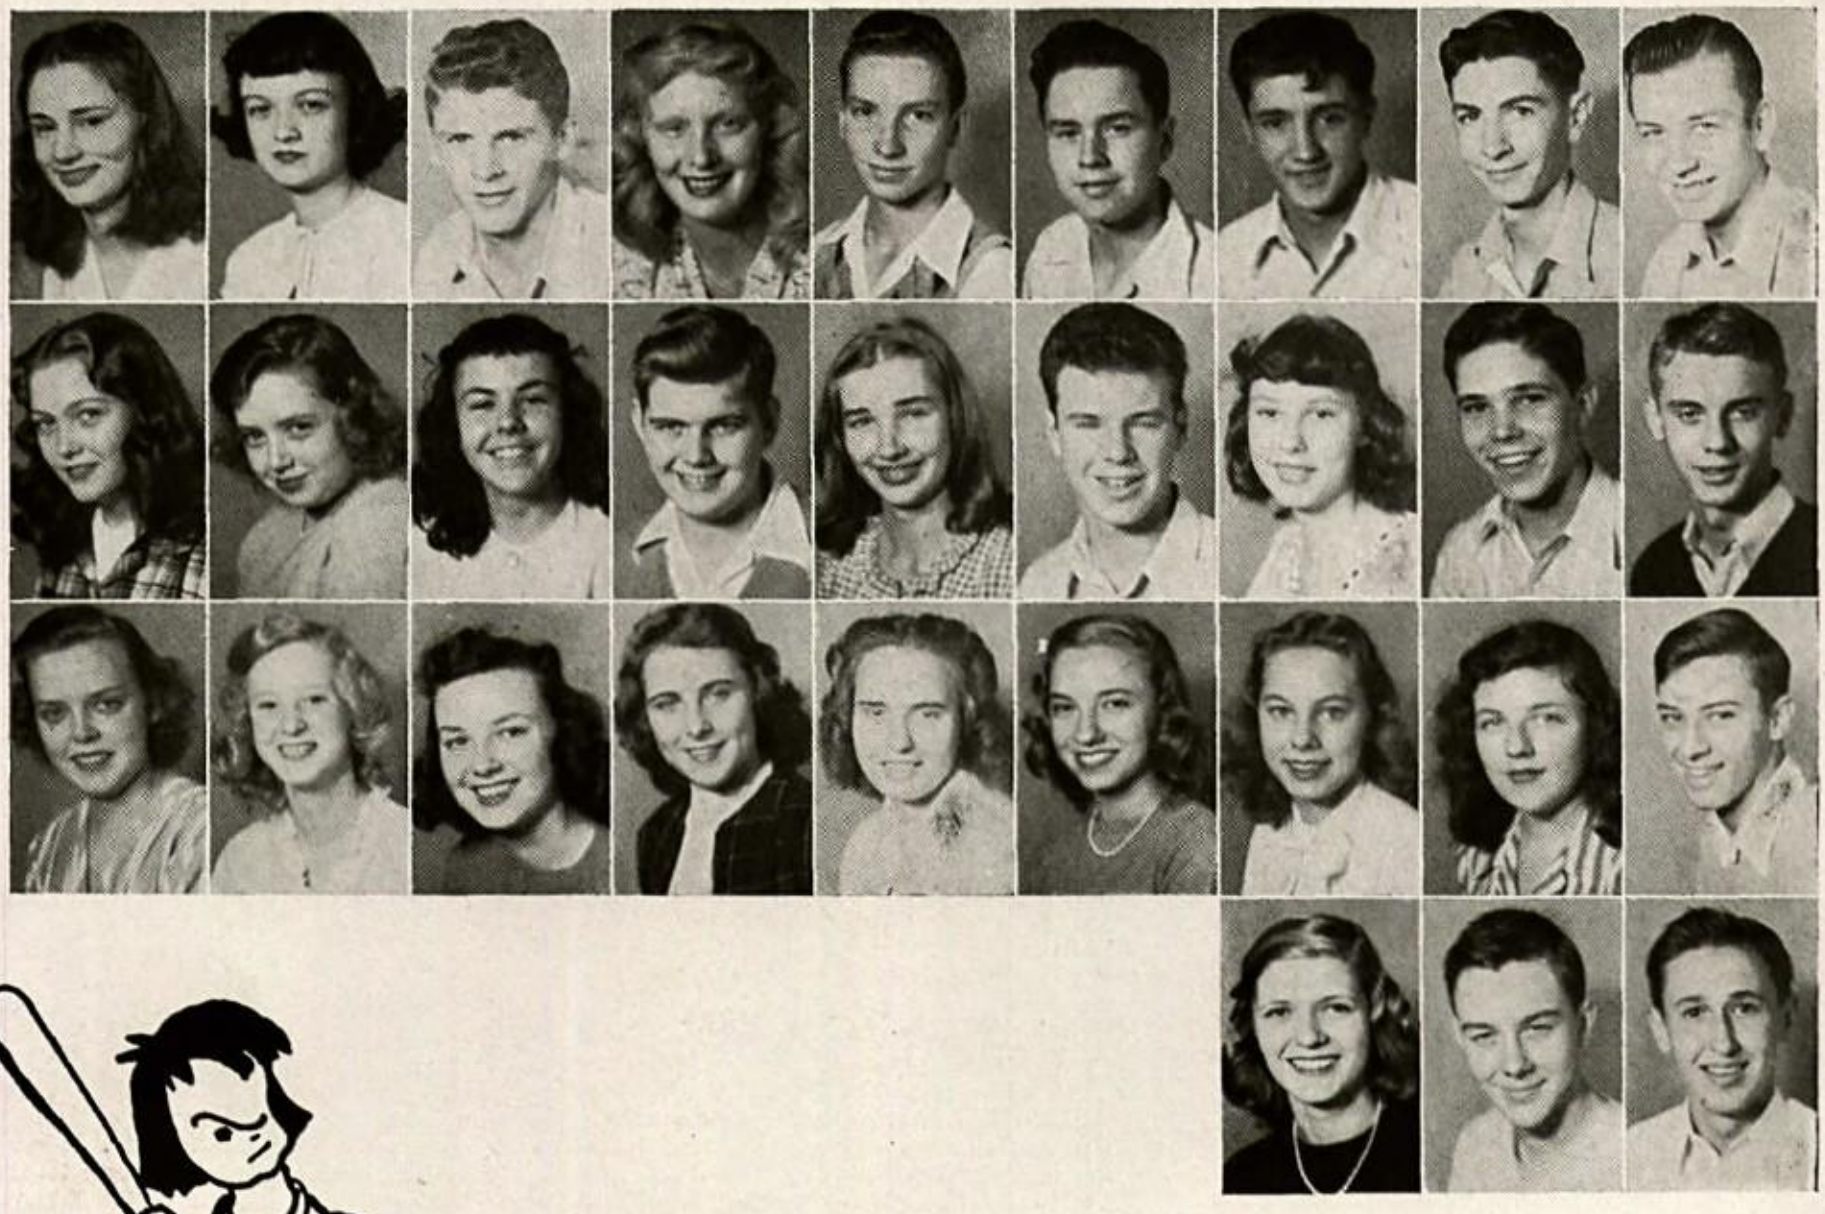
At all the football and basketball games Mary Lou McGannon was seen doing her job as a cheerleader. Mary Lou also serves on the Executive Committee for our room.

Our homeroom class has members on the J-Hop and Junior-Senior Farewell Committees as well as the DeViltries. Bob Terry entertains the students during mass meetings with his dancing.

Many of our boys go out for football, basketball, track, and even wrestling. Terry Cunningham, Brunny Messinger, Bob O'Keefe, and Bob Baughman played during the football season. As for basketball and track, Bob Baughman participates in these two sports. Brunny Messinger and David Perlmutter are members of the wrestling team.

The students have many school activities that keep them busy. The clubs represented are Sharps and Flats, Junior Friendship, Junior Sorelles, Sub-Debs, and Junior Hi-Y.

We lost and gained some pupils during the year, but most of us wish to stay in the same room for we are looking forward to a bigger better homeroom in our senior year.



Miss Mildred Johnston—327

The path to the third floor is just about worn through by 327's juniors. At the end of our senior year we shall have left our imprints on these flights of stairs forever.

Our successful year is due to the leadership of Clark Kern, our president; aided by Paul Helm, vice-president; Dick Dancer, secretary; and Janice Phillips, treasurer. Other officers are: Student Council, Virginia Orthwein; Prism solicitor, Fred Davey; Red Cross representative, Jane Gerhart; Pot O' Gold, Joanne Imholt.

The Junior Friendship Club claims a large part of the girls, while the Junior Hi-Y captures many of the boys. Virginia Farber belongs to the French Club, and Thelma Beason is a high scorer in the Bowling Club. Virginia Orthwein is vice-president of the Junior Sorelles, as well as a member of the Pericleans and the Sub-Debs.

Students are also taking part on committees this year. Ann Nelson is on the Clerk of the Board Committee; Bob Wyman serves on the Finance Committee.

We are proud of the fact that our homeroom is represented on the Honor Roll because we are working hard to become a leading homeroom.

A hush stole over Homeroom M-1, but suddenly a cry arose. "MEN!", we shouted, "MEN!". Soon, to the surprise of all, we had a homeroom governed entirely by men. Phil Brunskill, John Stegeman, Bob Schneider, and Ruel Reinbolt were chosen as president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

Soon we recognized the need of being kept informed about school affairs. Then a cry arose in direct contrast with the first one. You've guessed it. "GIRLS!". So to balance the class, we elected Marianne Goodyear to bring us the Prism, Nancy Reister to take our Pot O'Gold subscriptions, Carol Heindel to inform us of Red Cross activities, and Mary Morrison to bring us all the Student Council news.

We are quite proud of our athletes Jerry Ross, who is on the varsity football team, and Russ Milne, who is on the basketball and golf teams.

Both boys and girls are well-represented in our school clubs. Phil Brunskill, Jerry Ross and Clark Crites are in the Hi-Y. The Friendship Club includes Nancy Reister, Nancy Bryan, and Marjorie Ridenour. Nancy Reister is a member of the Sub-Debs also. Bob Schneider is a member of the Engineer's Club.

We are represented in school activities too. Participating on DeViltries committees are Sue Kipperman and Nancy Reister. Sue, along with Shirley Liliestedt, is working on the Junior-Senior Farewell Committee; Mary Morrison is helping to put on our Junior Play. Jerry Ross is active on the Junior Executive Committee and is a member of the Inter-Club Council.

And although we are quite busy, we take some time out on Wednesdays to purchase savings stamps. Mary Morrison sells them to all of us.

As we bring our eventful junior year to a close, we look hopefully to a senior year filled with responsibilities and fun and we are all quite sure that it will prove to be even more exciting and memorable than this year.

Well, it is 12:30, and the Juniors scamper into Room 262. Everyone is in a jolly mood, having just eaten, that is, everyone but Bill Zahn, homeroom secretary, who is trying to take attendance.

President Don Connally is asking Jim Basso, vice-president, to remind Rodger Wadsworth of his Student Council meeting, when Eleanor Nottingham dashes out of the room. Nancy Pence, the Pot O' Gold solicitor, explains that Eleanor just remembered her Red Cross meeting.

But now it is time to drag out the billfold. Treasurer Jack Schaffer is waving a box under our noses and Gary Reynolds, P.T.A. representative, is also "collecting".

The door bursts open and in walks Jack Wood with a stack of Prisms. We see in the Prism that Bill Hubbarth is on the Honor Roll again. We also see that Joan Closs is on the Cafeteria Commission; Bill Hubbarth, Bill Zahn, Jim Schroeder, and Jim Bloom are Hi-Y boys; Marilyn Moan, Nancy Pence, Dorothy Fash, and Jo Anne Kelley are Friendship girls. Homeroom representatives to various committees are: J - Hop, Dorothy Fash; Junior - Senior Farewell, Eleanor Nottingham; Junior Play, Joan Closs; and Welfare, Jean Masters.

The sports page reveals that Jim Basso is a varsity basketball player, and Rodger Wadsworth will be co-captain of the 1947 football team.

We hope that this year's activities have prepared us for next year as we are all looking forward to it as the most important time of our high school life.

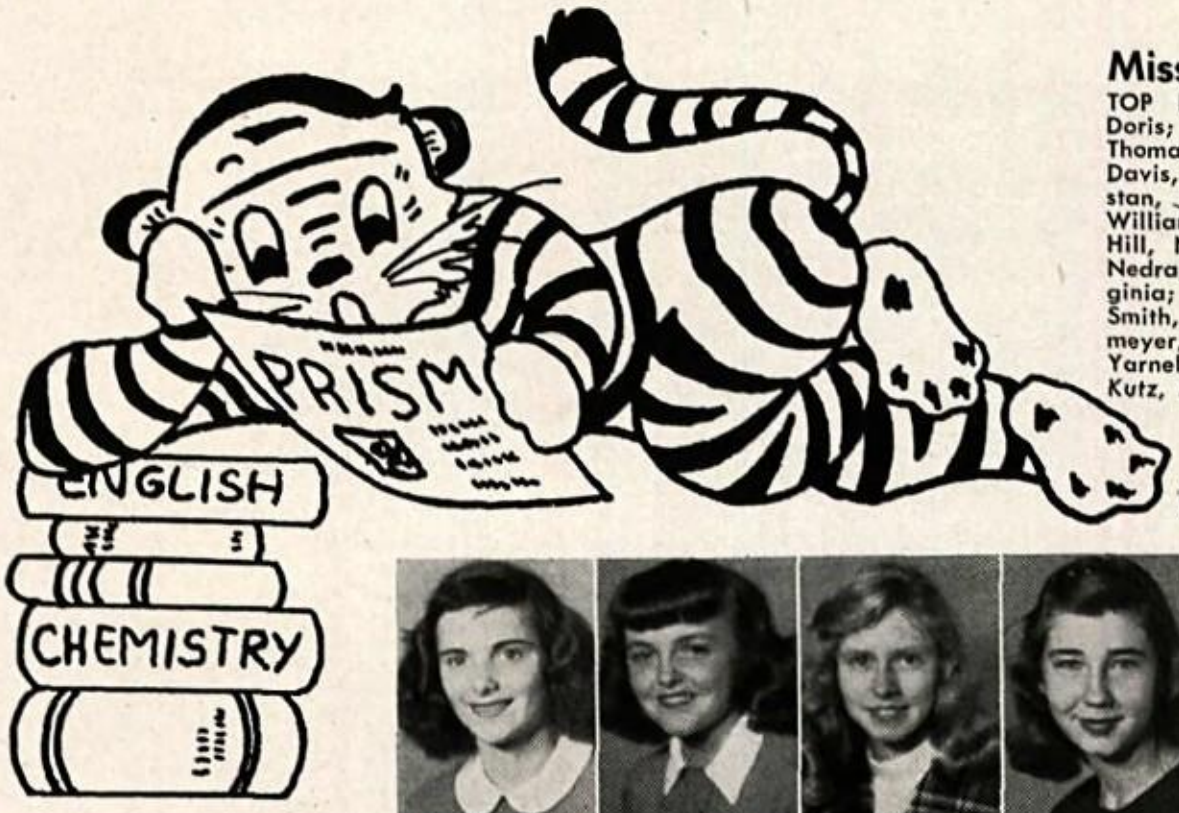
Every day at twelve o'clock Miss Kerlin herds her flock into 215. Some days she has all her little cherubs present; other days, two-thirds of the class is there and a handful of excuses is present. Committee meetings, make-up tests, and staff meetings account for the absent ones.

Our homeroom is represented on the Pumpkin Prance, Junior Play, Junior-Senior Farewell, and DeViltries committees. Also, we can't forget our own Ruth Crockett who is secretary of the Junior Class.

We do more than work on committees; we also do our school assignments. This is shown by our members on the Honor Roll: Joan Crawford, Beulahjean Markus, Virginia Reese, and Jim Villwock.

Others who rate acknowledgement are Andy Scott who is on the swimming team and Dick Hanley who is on the football team.

One day Miss Kerlin was successful in getting a majority of her homeroom students election-minded, so we held an election. On that day Ruth Crockett became president and Joan Crawford, secretary. From that day forward Nancy Hill has represented us at Red Cross meetings, Beulahjean Markus has tried desperately to sell all the Prisms allotted to her, and Jim Villwock has kept us up to date on the Student Council meetings.



Miss Lucille Kerlin—215

There is never a dull moment in Mr. Benson's homeroom. During the daily half hour in 212 known as homeroom period there is usually quite a bit of confusion. If it isn't Pat Faris, our Pot O' Gold solicitor, trying to collect money for our yearbooks, then it's Marilyn Ansted, our Red Cross representative, collecting money for our overseas box. By the way, we were one hundred per cent behind this project. To add to the confusion, Nancy Johnson, our Prism Solicitor, collects our dimes on Prism Day. On rare occasions we hear a Student Council report from Anne Hardy.

Then, of course, during all this, someone may be back at the laboratory tables making sulphur or something equally unpleasant.

Our homeroom is in capable hands under the leadership of Doug Rust, our president. He is assisted by Helen Varrian, vice-president, Shirley Kline, secretary, and Pat McClellan, treasurer. Then, of course, we are proud to have Janet Knierim, our Junior Class vice-president, in our homeroom.

We do have a few brilliant people in our homeroom. Pat Faris, Marilyn Ansted, and Walt Harrison are our contributions to the Honor Roll.

Bob Buss is our contribution to the field of sports. He is on the swimming team.

When it comes to social life, we are proud of our classmates. In our midst, we have members from Junior Sorelles, Friendship, Hi-Y, Spanish Club, French Club, and even the Horseback Riding Club.

There is also a majorette in our homeroom, Sue Zbierajewski. Several students in our homeroom are on Junior Class committees and several people are in the band. All in all, we think our homeroom 212 is an average Junior group.

Mr. Carl Benson—212

Many years ago a green little freshman climbed the steps to 322. Finally, although we never thought he'd make it, he blossomed into a full-fledged junior. His homeroom life is in the capable hands of Herbert M. Emery.

Poor Junior's allowance dwindles down as Joyce Rehn wants money for the Red Cross, Jane Starkey and Ron Poitinger, for the Pot O' Gold; and every two weeks there is Thurayne Thomas with an armload of Prisms. L'il Junior, never being very athletic, felt ashamed when he saw Dick Gehring, Bill Sweet, and Don Dankert on the track team, and George Rupp on the varsity basketball team. Then Jeanne Lewis, Jackie Dohn, and Peggy Doerter told him that he absolutely could not join the G.A.S. Peggy, of the Junior Executive Committee, and Jackie, of the Student Council, report to Junior about all meetings.

Things look discouraging, but as he remembers all the lovely, quiet hours he and his ear plugs spent in 322, I suppose he realizes that education is worth it. Look what it does for us.

Mr. C. C. Coontz—126

Do you like to eavesdrop? Then join us as we peer through the panes of room 126.

The sun is streaming steadily through the windows and a view of "Old Glory" presents itself as we look out across the school campus. In its usual place above the blackboard is that time-worn motto, the adviser's favorite, "Fools rush in where angels fear to tread."

Mr. Coontz, seated in his swivel chair, adjusts his bifocals on his nose, and surveys his junior homeroom. Just then he says, "Carolyn Maedel, APPROACH THE FRONT!" As the homeroom president tiptoes to the front of the room, Jim McFarland, secretary, and Lila Lavine, treasurer, awake from their dreams. Suddenly the door is thrown open and in rushes business-like Don Anderson, soliciting for the Pot O'Gold. Close behind is Nancy Osgood shouting, "Who'll buy a Prism?"

In one corner of the room, Russ Terry, Bob Simpson, and Norm Weber, of the varsity football team, pause in their plans to listen to the Student Council report by Fred Haase. Honor Roll members Lorene Barnes, Catherine Photos, Donna Birmingham, and Dorothy John are having quite a discussion. Seems they can't agree whether C. C. Coontz has had an extra short haircut or an honest-to-goodness BUTCH. Another group of people is gathered around Pat Waite, Red Cross representative.

DeVilbiss drum major, Tom Tober, tells us that 126 has members in Hi-Y, Sorelles, and Friendship Club, and has representatives on the Junior Play, J-Hop, Junior-Senior Farewell, Executive and Finance Committees.

But now, the hands of the clock creep close to 1:00 p.m., and Mr. Coontz takes his stand at the door. There is the bell! The door of room 126 swings open! And into the hall from their pleasant and happy homeroom, dash next year's SENIORS.

Inter-Club Council

The Inter-Club Council is an organization composed of a representative member from each chartered school club, and the Student Council Organizations Committee.

We are very fortunate in having Mr. Rettig as our faculty adviser. He has helped us through many problems. Jim Moffett, Commissioner of Organizations, is our student adviser.

Jim Strub, president, guides us with a strong hand through all our meetings. Nancy Rudes, vice-president, is ready to take over a meeting whenever she is needed. Eldonna Seawater, secretary, records the minutes of all our sessions.

Activities? Oh, yes, we have those too. We are planning to sponsor a movie on the last day of exams. The proceeds will go to the Y.W.C.A. building fund. We promoted the decorating contest which was responsible for making the school look so pleasing at Christmas time. Each club chose a part of the school it wished to decorate. This year the Junior Friendship Club won the honor of being voted the club with the best decorations.

The chartered clubs under our guidance are: Freshman Friendship, Sophomore Friendship, Junior Friendship, Senior Friendship, Freshman Hi-Y, Sophomore Hi-Y, Junior Hi-Y, Senior Hi-Y, French Club, Spanish Club, Debate Club, Engineers' Club, Chess Club, Home Economics Club, Science Club, Pericleans, Zetaletheans, Senior Sorelles, Sub Debs, Chevaux, Junior Bowling.

We would like to have more chartered clubs here at DeVilbiss, so why not get together with your friends and turn your hobby into one?

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

"Wanted: Students interested in singing in the A Cappella Choir. Arrange auditions with Mr. Zaugg." This call was sent to DeVilbiss students last spring. Seventy-five hopefuls answered it and received an audition. Now, twelve of them are performing with the other twenty-four members of the most select singing group at DeVilbiss. Members are chosen because of their voice quality and their ability to sight-read music.

Since the word "a cappella" means "without accompaniment", our group does not use any musical instruments, except when required in the music. Even when sight-reading a number for the first time, we seldom use a piano. Although singing unaccompanied is difficult it is only a part of the necessary training of the group.

We must also sing accurately the different intervals that occur in the music, learn proper breath control, and be able to hear and to guard against any variations of pitch. Because of the differences of voice in the members, the effect of the chorus is like an organ of voices, or so we are told.

This year the A Cappella Choir has presented many programs in DeVilbiss as well as fulfilling numerous engagements outside of school. We provided entertainment for an American Legion Post meeting, for the Business Women's Club meeting, and for the general public through a radio broadcast. These are only a few of our frequent appearances.

MARCHING BAND

To most people the words "football" and "parade" bring to mind many things, such as the drafty seats in the stadium, or standing on tiptoe to see the parade marching by on a national holiday. To the seventy-five members of the DeVilbiss High School band, they mean swinging along to a snappy cadence or a quick march, and they mean a thrill of pride when the cheers are heard as the band marches by.

Besides playing at football games and in the Armistice Day parade, the band played at the first Glass Bowl Game at Toledo University, and gave a band demonstration at Ottawa Hills High School. It will play in the parade on Memorial Day.

Under the leadership of Mr. J. Phillip Zaugg, director, and Tom Lober, drum major, the marching band has had one of its most successful seasons in recent years.

BOYS' CHORUS

"A new music organization in DeVilbiss? That's odd, I didn't hear about it." No, you probably haven't heard much about the DeVilbiss High School Male Chorus. The reason for this is that no programs have been presented because the chorus is small and has been very busy organizing.

This class is elected by the students as a regular music subject. It meets every day during second hour, practicing under the direction of Mr. Zaugg, who also plays accompaniment on the piano when necessary. The sixteen members consist of five upperclassmen, the remainder being freshmen and sophomores.

We have had many difficulties, the greatest being that the chorus has so many unchanged voices as well as voices that are between changed and unchanged. This problem isn't too serious except from the standpoint of Mr. Zaugg. When he has the sections fully organized, somebody's voice changes and we have a new star baritone who has all the top tenor parts memorized and who doesn't know how to read bass clef. Another problem is that of buying music. When Mr. Zaugg orders, he must consider that some voices will change by the time the music is delivered.

Some of the favorite compositions that we have practiced this year are: Stouthearted Men and The Riff Song by Romberg, Girl of My Dreams by Clapp and This Is My Country by Jacobs and Raye.

We hope that next year we will be able to have not only most of our old members with us but also many new ones interested in music. We want to make the DeVilbiss Male Chorus one of the best music organizations in the Toledo high schools.

GIRLS' CHORUS

Ninety-two of us—that's how many there are in the Girls' Chorus. We range from first sopranos to second altos. Our songs are from A Cappella arrangement to piano accompaniment, and from semi-popular to classical.

We are led by our president, Marion Hagerty, and our vice-president, Marion Baehren. Barbara Yeager takes over our treasury and Donna Keiser is our competent secretary. When not playing the piano, Mary Satre and Donna Keiser sing first soprano.

Out of the entire group, forty were selected to sing March 12 on a program over W.T.O.L. We shared the broadcast with the A Cappella Choir. Of course we hope you are looking forward to our spring concert in which all of the music department will participate.

This year, choir robes were made available through a donation of the labor union of the Spicer Manufacturing Company. The colors we chose were blue and gray.

For those of you who don't know, the Girls' Chorus is only in its third year, but how we have grown since our beginning! Under the direction of Mr. Phillip Zaugg, we have been able to sing to our hearts' desire. Our motto is "To be better than the best".

A girl has a choice of two courses. She may take applied or practical music. If she takes practical music, she receives half credit for the course and sings only three days a week; however, if she takes applied music, she receives full credit and is in the chorus five days a week. One day is set aside to study the history of music from its earliest stages to its present day development.

Mr. Zaugg has announced that next year he will choose an all-selected chorus. If you can sing fairly well, won't you join us?

CONCERT BAND

Again this year you may feel proud of the DeVilbiss Concert Band. We now have eighty-one members, making this year's organization larger than any bands in recent years. The thirty-nine woodwind, thirty-five brass, and seven percussion instruments make it a well-balanced group.

Mr. Zaugg, who has been our director for four years, has some very interesting plans laid for our spring season — always an active time for this band. The plans for all of the concerts are not complete but here are two of the more definite decisions. On May 13, we shall present a concert for the Chamber of Commerce meeting at Macomber. A double assembly program is planned for April 24th. Among the works of several famous composers which we shall play will be Royal Fireworks Music and Allegro Maestose by Handel; Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, Chorale, and Fugue in G Minor by Bach; and Wine, Women and Song, and Southern Roses by Strauss.

On the social side of the calendar our president, Chuck Holmes; our vice-president, Dan Connally; and our secretary, Mary Jane Reiker, are planning many activities for the members.

Our band has been very successful and with everyone's help, we can make music play an even more important part in the program at DeVilbiss.

1947 POT O'GOLD STAFF

"Somewhere over the rainbow dreams come true" and there is the pot of gold. In fact we find the whole POT O' GOLD staff living over the rainbow in the world where dreams come true. There are Nancy Rettig, Jim Villwock, and Nancy Stalker counting all their gold and declaring that the POT O' GOLD never has any financial troubles. Of course Tom Conser, business manager, might not say the same thing. Oh yes, there are the editors-in-chief Janie Schrider and Betty Jo Chilcote sending last minute material to the printers via pigeon express—no more split second dashes for them. Look at Ann Woodruff, art editor, and her assistant, Marilyn Ruhl, as they blow cartoon bubbles. The special soap they use blows the cartoons right onto the page. Dosia Carlson and Jane Diehl, the literary editors, have just floated in to announce to the faculty editors, Carolyn Freed and Sally Crumley, that the teachers have decided to discontinue high school. This means that Marilyn Miller, and Beulahjean Markhus won't need to labor over the senior section. Now Pat Binding and Jane Lindsay can stop worrying about the juniors. Our sophomore editors, Nancy Gass and Harold De Mun; our freshmen editors, Inez Okun and Barbara Kerr, are free and happy again. Student government editors, Barbara Sawtelle and Betty Allen; and feature editor, Eddie Fluevog, continue eating potato chips. Bruce Chambers and Dorothy Liberty remind us that all the organizations write-ups are in perfect shape. The biggest section of the book is given to boys' athletics supervised by Duane Hall and girls' athletics, by Nancy Gass— a whole division which will be only pictures. Speaking of pictures there are photographers Jim Huffer, Dave Epstein, John Van Keuren and Alton LeBeau picking flash bulbs from a tree. Typists Marilyn Woessner and Barbara Kuhr; and panel editors Peggy Lukens and Bob Loshbaugh, are lounging in the clouds with new machines doing all the work. Jim Root, Carolyn Bowers, and Marian Van Gorder have so many advertisements that they have decided to put them all into the pot of gold. Miss Ruth Smith and Mr. D. N. Stalker, advisers to this peaceful staff, slide up and down the rainbow.

1947 PRISM STAFF

No newspaper office can compare with the activity and general commotion of the Prism offices in 216 and 250. This bustling activity which eventually results in a publication, starts at eleven o'clock and continues late into the night. Communication is carried on between the two offices by telephone and roller-skate service. John Laird is in charge of the latter. Editor Katy Crothers starts the presses rolling with commands, "Stories are due at 3:00. Where are the page make-ups? Who's got my lunch?" Good naturedly Miss Bloom chimes in, "You'll never get a paper out at the rate you're going." At this point Managing Editor, Dick Ahrendt, and the Sports Department, consisting of Phil Neitzel, Jay Wright, Bud Miller, and Jim Miller, disappear in the general direction of the cafeteria with the statement, "We're going out to get some food for a story."

The shout, "I've got six more inches of ads!" ushers in Tom Simons. Associate Editors Marilyn Hammann, Elaine Wilkinson, and Donna Winterfeld quietly faint while Crothers ponders the question where to put the ads and still have room for stories? As Joanne Drews rushes in with the exchange papers, she is met by the female member of the Sports Department, Joanne Ziegler. Jo has to check over the competition (sports that is) from other schools. During this time Bess Fuller is found silently tearing her hair out in an attempt to balance the books. She is serenaded by the publicity trio Selma Goerlich, Alice Eichman, and Molly Adams. The singing ceases as Jimmy Moffet rushes in crying, "Get a reporter on the job! I've got a scoop." Romaine Herman is sent to get the story. Sweeping aside the old flash bulbs are the photographers, Nick Demos and Jim Taylor. Howard Minke is found with his two assistants, Virginia Seeman and Mickey Kitzman, counting the intake from the last issue. Miss Hirth stands by with the money bags. Jean Fadden and Ann Girkins silently eye the situation.

LA JUNTA ESPAÑOLA

"Como está Vd." and "muy bien, gracias" were heard quite frequently at each meeting of La Junta Española, for during refreshment time all members were required to speak in "español" only. What quiet meetings we had!

Under the guidance of Mrs. Backus, La Junta Española opened its first meeting this year in the home of its president, Virginia Seeman, and plans were made for the year. Each first Wednesday of the month thereafter, the club met in a home of a member for a short business meeting and a talk. The selection of speakers was taken care of by Barbara Coble, vice-president, with the aid of Rosita Erausquin. Some outstanding speakers were: Miguel Esquival who showed us kodachrome slides of his recent trip through Mexico; and Miss Olive Kirkby who spoke on her trip to Guatemala.

In March La Junta Española arranged for the advanced Spanish students to hear a lecture on Spanish art at the Toledo Museum of Art.

Under the direction of Judy Sinclair and with the help of the members, the club received honorable mention for its decoration of the lobby at Christmas time.

Each year our club and some of the Spanish classes take charge of the Pan-American Day program. Speeches, songs and plays are presented to strengthen the good will of the Americas through understanding our neighbors. This year Duane Hall, who is also our chaplain, has charge of this program.

SENIOR FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The national slogan and purpose of the Y-Teens' is "To find and give the best" and "To face life squarely". Toward this end the Senior Y-Teen girls have met together in work, play, fellowship, and worship.

The year's activities have included a Christmas party, a pot luck and skating party, and a card party to raise funds for the Y.W.C.A. building campaign. One of our service projects was providing two hundred candy-filled favors for the County Infirmary. Among the programs presented was a talk by Miss Cynthia Ewing on the comparisons between English and American life. Marthalou Seubert, a student at the University, spoke to the club at a later date on the relation of the Y.W.C.A. to university life. "Y-Teen Work And Its Organization" was the topic of the talk by Miss Louise Jones of the Y.W.C.A.

The officers of the group are: Elaine Wilkinson, president; Joanne Ziegler, vice-president; June Tussing, secretary; Julie Miller, treasurer; and Jane Diehl, chaplain. Angela Killinger, Publicity; Jane Laures and Ginny Linker, Membership; Dorothy King, Y-Teen-Hi-Y Council Representative; Fadwa Haney, Inter-Club Council Representative; Julie Miller, Y.W.C.A. Inter-Club Council Representative; Nancy Rudes, Social; Pat Weber, Ways and Means; and Marilyn Woodgate, Welfare—these are our committees and the girls who work hard to run them.

The girls agree that most of their success is due to the thoughtful and careful guidance of their advisers, Miss Eva Samsen and Mrs. Anne Sutter.

This year the hand which held the gavel of the Senior Hi-Y belonged to Herb Baker, who was assisted by Lisle Nied, vice-president; Dick Ruehlin, secretary; and Edwin Fluevog, treasurer. Again this year it has been gratifying to have had a number of members hold high offices. These boys have tried to keep the Hi-Y purpose in mind while fulfilling their duties. In the Senior Class, Jackson Smith and Dick Ruehlin were vice-president and treasurer, respectively. Jim Revell, Howard Minke, Tom Conser, Duane Hall and Don Schlatter held posts as commissioners.

The club's social affairs commenced even before school opened this year, with several of our members going to Vineyard Lake for a week in August. Next came a roast and meeting at Side-Cut Park in order to get everyone back into the swing of things. In November came our annual dance. Early in February came our paper sale. Together with these events we held our meetings each Thursday evening at the Y.M.C.A. or at some member's home.

The program chairman, Bud Nelson, has done a very adequate job in securing speakers and in planning trips or discussions for our various meetings. Two speakers well known to all around DeVilbiss were Mr. Robert Lampton and Mr. Clyde Kiker.

During the Christmas vacation period our team secured second place in the annual city Hi-Y basketball tournament.

JUNIOR FRIENDSHIP CLUB

What club do you suppose is one of the most active in DeVilbiss? None other than the Junior Friendship, of course.

Not only did we succeed in capturing the "Little Brown Jug" for Christmas decorations from the Sharps and Flats Club; but we also staged a successful dance under the direction of our Social Committee which consists of Jean Baker, Nancy Whitman, Ruth Carson, Joan Splittgerber, with Hazel Murphy as chairman. The decorations were under the supervision of Mary Hill who was helped by Nedra Mason, Nancy Sloan, Barbara Black, and Connie Herbst.

During the month of March, the basketball team led by Dottie Fash and Marilyn Power tied with the DeVilbiss Sophomore Friendship in the "Y" league tournament. The members of the team were: Ann Nelson, Marilyn Hartman, Marilyn Power, Dottie Fash, Jeanne Baker, Marilyn Brubaker, Betty Gray, Marion Van Gorder, and Jane Lindsay.

The volley-ball team—Peggy Doerter, Dorothy John, Peggy and Barb Lukens, and the members of the basketball team, also participated in a league at the "Y".

We do not always do things for ourselves though. At Christmas we held a party at the home of Jean Reisler for some underprivileged children. We also gave a song festival at the Old Ladies' Home.

To help with the building fund for the new Y.W.C.A., we will take charge of the dancing and roller skating at the carnival sponsored by the "Y". The proceeds from a rummage sale in April also will go for the building fund.

Who are the officers of this active club? Shirley Keats is president; Jane Gerhart, vice-president; Joan Crawford, secretary; Juanita Dipman, treasurer; and Lois Foor, chaplain. Jane Gerhart is chairman of the program committee; Lois Davis, music; Yvette Caldwell, publicity; and Jean Riseler, membership. Miss Hanson, Mrs. Keats, Mrs. Reisler, and Mrs. Markhus are our advisers.

JUNIOR HI-Y

The Junior Hi-Y got off to a good start by electing Ronnie Kinney, president; Bob Drake, vice-president; Les Gerke, secretary; Doug Rust, treasurer. Our committee chairmen were: Fred Haase, Program; Phil Brunskill, Social; Dick McCallister, Service; Dick Schumm, International Brotherhood; Tom Marquardt, Membership; Jerry Ross, Camp; Dan Rowand, Publicity; and Jack Schafer, Rooms. Our Hi-Y-Friendship representative was Bill Hubbarth.

Our first event of the year was a farewell party for Charles Nauts who was leaving for Chicago University. Mr. Merritt Nauts, Mr. R. D. Miller, and Mr. Ralph Tippett were present at this party. The state Hi-Y convention held in November was attended by Bill Hubbarth and Ronnie Kinney as delegates. The material presented there on the theme "Create, Maintain, and Extend" was an inspiration to us.

To increase our treasury and to be of service to the school we sold programs at the football games. In the annual Hi-Y basketball tournament held during Christmas vacation we entered three teams, which won second, third, and sixth places. On February 7, we held our yearly dance at the Women's Building.

To supplement our weekly meetings, we engaged several speakers. Among these were: Mr. Robert Baumgartner, Referee at the Domestic Relations Court, and Mr. Louis Mathias. As a group we attended the Hi-Y Friendship Forums held in February. The speakers, Mr. Frank Duvendack, Mr. Louis Mathias, and Mr. Perry Saito, proved very interesting and instructive.

To extend the Hi-Y movement we initiated and gave advice to a newly formed club in Whitehouse.

This year, our members who had been to Camp Nelson - Dodd came back filled with new ideas and spirit. We hope to be able to send representatives to the state Hi-Y camp again this summer.

We feel this year that as Junior Hi-Y members we have been of service to our school and have had a lot of fun together. However, next year, as seniors, we are hoping to rise to new heights of success and achievement.

SOPHOMORE FRIENDSHIP CLUB

STANDING: Lauralee Evanoff, Betty Luallen, Barbara Gibson. PLAYERS: Margaret Housley, Carol LaRowe, Eldonna Seawater, Donna Potter, Pat Pfaffenberger, Doris Holliger, Phyliss Schmidt, Eleanor Trudel, Carolyn MacPhie. NOT IN PICTURE: Jean Ann Schoelen, Marjorie Zingg, Beverly Lenfesty, Marian Stone, Patsy, Goss, Margaret Thyen, Carolyn Stienhauer, Helen Hoyt, Joyce Ehret, Pat Blanke, Shirley Nettleton, Mary Bendlin, Carolyn Sue Boyer, Jean Read, Mary Jane Watkins, Barbara Price, Mary Lucille Smith, Mary McAdoo, Erma Jacob, Norma Nordsiek, Virginia Parente, Betty Moore, Dorothy Huntley, Joan Vannorsdall, Phyliss Butler, Joyce Sottek, Margaret Johnson, JoAnn Snyder, Carol Liechtey.

Every other Tuesday afternoon the Sophomore Friendship Club has its meetings. We usually meet in Miss Guire's room. She and Miss Eley are our advisers.

Our meetings start with Eldonna Seawater, our president, calling the girls to order. Then either Eleanor Trudel, Joyce Sottek, or Dorothy Huntley, our three chaplains, leads us in prayer. Barbara Price, secretary, next reads the minutes; following her comes Betty Luellen's treasurer's report. Donna Potter, the membership chairman, records the attendance of each meeting.

The first social event was a roast given at Ottawa Park in September. This was held to get new members interested in the club. We played games and had the roast itself afterward.

On November 14, we held our Recognition Service. Eleanor Trudel was the chairman. The guest speaker, Miss Hirth, was followed by Miss Eley who also gave a short talk. All of the members participated in this candlelight service.

The social highlight of the year was the Sophomore Friendship-Hi-Y joint party at the Y.M.C.A. on February 20. Mr. Joseph, the adviser of the Hi-Y, was the speaker for the evening. Mr. Miller led us in some group games. Then we played ping pong and danced.

Donna Potter organized a basketball team which played at the Y.W.C.A. against teams from near-by schools. Ours was the first club team to be organized in the city and others soon followed our example.

To create, maintain, and extend throughout school and community a high standard of Christian character—such is the purpose of all Hi-Y organizations—such is the goal toward which we strive.

The program of work and play in which the club, during the past year guided by Dick Aubry, president; Larry Leake; vice-president; Carl Dickie, secretary; and Harry Edgington, treasurer, participated, indicates a most creditable degree of achievement. One good reason why our Hi-Y has been so successful is our adviser, "George" Joseph. He supplied us with men whom he knew while he was in the navy as speakers. We are very proud to have such a fine man for our adviser.

Our activities consisted of hayrides, movies, a party with the Sophomore Friendship Club, and helping to raise money for the new Y.W.C.A.

One of our members placed in the finals of the ping pong tournament. In the swimming meets with the other Hi-Y clubs, we took third place last year and expect to be on top this season.

Great pride is taken by all of us in our school activities. We have many lightweight football and basketball players in our group, as well as members of the swimming, tennis, and football varsity teams. One member even made the varsity football team in his freshman year.

The Sophomore Hi-Y was of course well represented at the Sunday afternoon Hi-Y-Friendship Forums which were held during February.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

"We are the Future Homemakers of America.

We face the future with warm courage,

And high hope"—thus goes the creed of the DeVilbiss chapter, Ohio Association of the Future Homemakers of America, known simply as the DeVilbiss Home Economics Club.

The club held its first meeting of this year on Friday, September 13th and the following officers were elected: president, Arlyne Stoll; vice-president, Lucille Abel; secretary, Joan Splittgerber; treasurer, Norma Childers; historian, Janet Rees; and Inter-Club Council representative, Donna Fick. The meetings were then continued regularly on the second and the fourth Friday of each month.

Some outstanding programs of the year were: a talk by Miss Schueren on "Books in the DeVilbiss Library of Interest to the Home Economics Student"; a Christmas caroling party at the home of Janet Rees; and work on the Junior Homemaker degree and the Honor Club degree.

The focal point of the year was the candle-light initiation at the home of Joan Splittgerber. Each new member was presented a corsage of the club colors—red and white.

The committees appointed for the year are: Social—Shirley Behm, Joan Splittgerber, and Gloria Smith, Chairman; Program—Mary Davis, Arlyne Stoll, and Betty Reinhart, Chairman; Project — Colleen Barrow, Janet Rees, Donna Fick, Lucille Abel, Norma Childers, and Marilyn Otley, Chairman.

We are ably advised this year by Miss Cynthia Ewing, exchange teacher from England, Miss Mary Bargmann, and Mrs. Jeannette Brand.

This year the Engineers' Club was much more active than it has been for many years. Our principle activity was visiting Toledo Industries. Among the plants seen were: Spicer Manufacturing; Willys-Overland Motors, Inc.; the Sewage Treatment Works; Doehler Die Casting Division of Doehler-Jarvis Corp.; Baker Brothers; Peerless Molded Plastics, Inc.; and the Libbey Glass Division of Owens-Illinois.

At one meeting we saw a movie entitled "The Story of Nickel", and at another we had the Science Club as our guests. During that meeting we heard a talk by Mr. Joseph Gorman, a metallurgist from Doehler Die. Late in February we selected our candidate for the "Beanie Queen". Of course with a club composed solely of boys there were numerous suggestions, but out of them all Janet Knierim emerged victorious.

The officers who kept the club so active were: Porter McDonnell, president, who arranged the trips; George Brandt, vice-president; Al Leake, secretary; Don Ketteman, treasurer; Leslie Noaker, Inter-club Council representative; and Fred Bailey, publicity director.

We are all grateful for the many informative tours which the factories granted us and we hope that future members of this club will be able to see as much as we have seen.

Le Cercle Francais can look back on this year proudly. We ratified a new constitution and became a chartered club. Our membership more than doubled. Jean Parkes and Barbara Burns worked hard to win third place in the school's annual Christmas decoration contest.

Jean Held, Nancy Anderson, Snooky Hudson, Sue Boesel, and Virginia Farber made up the pin committee. Although we decided that the idea of pins for this year's club be dropped, distinctive ones are planned for the future Les Cercles Francais.

With the counsel of Mr. Pasquier, Le Cercle was directed by Robert Mallory, as president. Joanne Smith, secretary, carried our affairs to the Inter-Club Council files, and the iron hand of Barbara Burns reached into our pockets to keep the treasury out of the red. Nancy Anderson kept us informed of the doings of the Inter-Club Council.

At the last meeting in May, a Ranimateur will be elected who will reactivate Le Cercle Francais for a bigger and better next year.

Our club is composed of DeVilbiss students of French who are interested in the language and the people. A prime consideration is the popularization of the French language for incoming students. Having studied the language ourselves and appreciated its beauty and usefulness, we are sincerely interested in carrying its benefits to more students. Showing this interest in the country were many of our members who carried on a correspondence with their "pen-pals" in many cities of far-off France.

Well, we Peri's are coming to the end of another year. This one has been really grand. All of our activities went over with a "bang", thanks to the co-operation of our members, officers, and advisers. It wasn't easy for our treasurer, Mary Erler to balance our books, but she did a fine job of trying. Pat Brown and Ann Hamilton, both capable secretaries, were heavensent. Their jobs were well done.

It takes two to make a fight, but for a "gab-session" it simply took a room-full of Peri's. Without Katy Crothers, our well-loved sergeant-at-arms, we would surely have been lost.

We say thanks to Selma Goerlich for being our vice-president and for backing up our Peri President, Ann Marie Girkins.

DeVilbiss Week, the annual week-long celebration sponsored by the Peries, was a great success, thanks to the whole-hearted support of the student body and faculty. The week, in which every day is set aside in recognition of a different group, has become a tradition at DeVilbiss.

To our two unbeatable advisers, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Brand, we extend our gratitude. We'll never forget them, the Peri's, or DeVilbiss.

At seven-thirty on the first and third Tuesdays of every month, Marilyn Boysen stands before us pounding with her gavel and calling the meeting to order. Nancy Rudes, vice-president and representative to the Inter-club council, is seated beside her. Iva Rothlisberger, the chaplain, opens the meeting with a prayer. Shirley Spurgeon and Audrey Drew, secretary and treasurer respectively, give their reports. And so proceeds another "get-together" of the Sub-Debs.

When all the girls keep talking at once, Joann Ream, our sergeant-at-arms, shouts out her orders.

We are largely a social club made up of junior and senior girls who enjoy being together. The first meeting of this year was a roast held at Harriet Wright's home. Many other enjoyable parties were planned by the social committee with Marilyn Warner as chairman. Mary Ellen Nauts is responsible for the programs that we have at our gatherings. One memorable occasion was the installation service which was planned by Glenda Crosby's committee. Nancy Rudes, aided by the officers and chairmen, had fun arranging the initiation evening. The welfare committee, headed by Mary Vosburgh, is compiling a large scrapbook which will give a record of all our activities. We are all looking forward to a banquet which the juniors will give the seniors in the spring. Virginia Orthwein is in charge of this event.

A great share of the success of our organization is due to the faithful guidance of our advisers, Miss Lerche and Miss Pasch.

Bob Chappius, former DeVilbiss star and now All-American back at the University of Michigan, studies the program with Mr. Nauts at the Thanksgiving Day Game.

Looking exceptionally good in the annual Newsboys' Gridiron Premier, the DeVilbiss players appeared very impressive.

Dropping a close game to Woodward, and losing to Middletown, one of the states power-houses in grid affairs, the DeVilbiss toilers avenged themselves by defeating Central in a hard fought battle on our field. At Waite, Don Sharpe's stalwarts were soundly trounced. In the following two games excellent generalship of the team plus superb defense tactics provided the grounds for the defeat of Scott and Woodward by decisive scores. Splitting the next two out-of-town games, defeating Sandusky and bowing to Alliance, Sharpe's boys were undeniably crushed by Waite, with the Indians scoring at random.

November 25 was a cold day at the DeVilbiss High School stadium but thrilling grid play offset the biting wind. Libbey, annual turkey-day opponent of the West-enders, won again, yet not without considerable headache and toil.

Anson Spohler, Tiger guard, was chosen for the all-city team—the only DeVilbiss representative.

Beginning the season with an abundance of weight and prospective talent, Fred Breed's kittens proved to have very sharp claws. Boasting a line varying from one hundred sixty-seven to one hundred seventy-five pounds, and a backfield capable of great things, the season seemed very promising.

Meeting Libbey in the opener, Mr. Breed's players battled to a tie only to lose by one point. Returning the following week, they defeated Central and Woodward consecutively, only to have their streak snapped by a powerful Waite aggregation. Also losing to Scott, they ended in third spot, having won two and lost three. Examination of the play throughout the season substantiates the guess that next year's varsity team will be a strong one.

Losing only a few members from the previous year, and with the team's opportunities greatly advanced by the return from Pennsylvania of Walt Churchill, Norm Pollman's thinclads carved out a third place in the city competition. This success was immediately eclipsed by the Tigers occupying second spot in the twenty-school district meet.

Winning the first meet against Woodward, the Cross-Country team then lost two consecutive heartbreakers to Waite and Central respectively, each by small margins. However, in retaliation, the harriers defeated Scott and Libbey decisively. Following city competition, Pollman's toilers surprised local and district contenders by gaining a second place in the district finals, nearly defeating Mansfield, former state champions.

Led by a wealth of Varsity material, the DeVilbiss cagers began the season with great promise, anticipating a city championship.

Disposing of the alumni and dominating their first outside quintet, Monroe, by favorable scores, they went on to overwhelm Scott. Losing to Woodward, they retaliated by defeating Montpelier. Entering into a losing streak for two games, the team provided plenty of discussion by upsetting Libbey. Bowing to Central, and overcoming Macomber, they then succeeded in dropping Wauseon. Nourishing a defeat by Canton Timken at Canton, they again surmized the Scott quintet the following week. An opportunity for defeating Woodward, the current League leader, was lost through a misinterpretation of signals by the officials. Losing the next four consecutive games reversed their third place standing, dropping them to fourth place in the city league. In the District games at the field house, DeVilbiss lost to Waite.

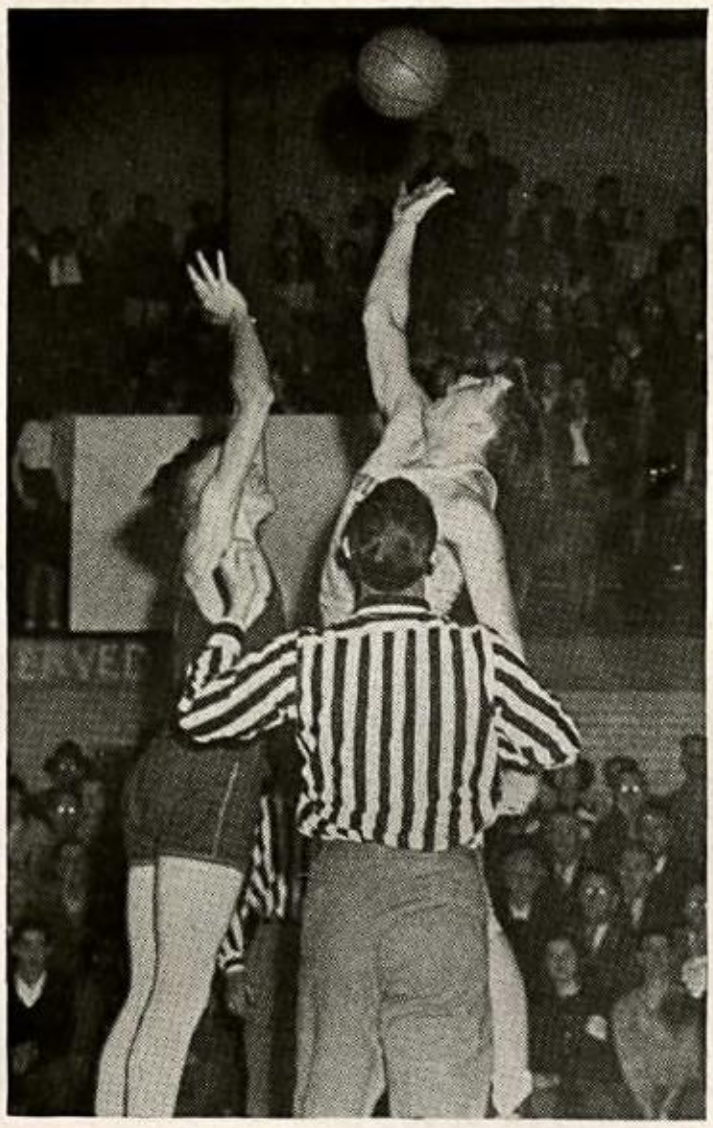
LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL



Coached by Don Sharp and Dave MacMurray, the Kittens proved to be capable of scratching very deep. Displaying plenty of class plus a fast break coupled with fine floor play, Sharpe's cagers show evidence of being a very promising varsity team in the future. The lightweights employed an aggressive attack and unnerved competition by a tight, well planned defense. Height plus speed characterized the team on the whole, but unbalanced play plus extremely good competition cut deeply into the Tiger rating.

Losing the opener to Monroe, the winning margin coming in the late minutes of the game, they proceeded to retaliate by defeating Scott in a fast well-played game. Dropping a hard one to Woodward and bowing in a thrilling last quarter struggle to Central, the hardwood stalwarts lost hard, constantly stealing the ball and interfering with the opposing teams play.

Faring moderately well with competition from the remaining schools, plus defeating several quintets who had previously overpowered them, the floormen rounded out a fairly successful season. The main point or phase of lightweight play was accomplished—that of preparing underclassmen for varsity positions.

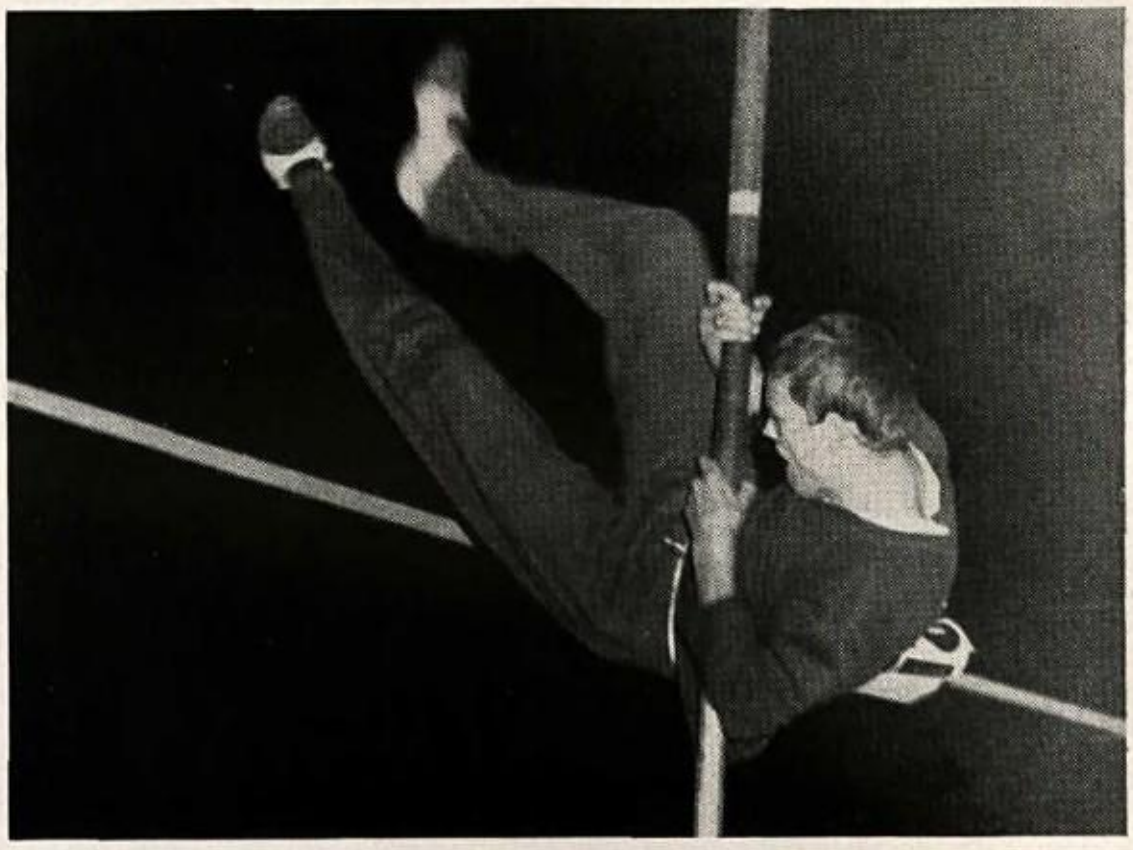
DEVILBISS NIGHT RELAYS



May 3, 1946, heralded the reopening of one of DeVilbiss' great projects—the DeVilbiss Night Relays. Dispensed with during the war, this athletic contest once more was taken over by Norm Pollman, and Toledo again became the focal point for all regional track enthusiasts. Attendance was much greater because of the renewed interest, and expectations are that it will continue to increase each year. An entry of from thirty to forty schools from both Michigan and Ohio assured success.

The preliminaries were held in the afternoon; the finals, at the evening session. DeVilbiss easily topped the field by placing in every event except one. The meet was presided over by five lovely girls, the DeVilbiss Relay Queens, three seniors and two juniors, who were elected by the student body to give awards and trophies to the visitors. The class "A" trophy for the outstanding athlete went to a DeVilbiss thinclad, while the class "B" award went to Clyde.

TRACK

Sweeping all opposition before them, Norm Pollman's trim Tigers attained their first state championship last spring. Favored with a great deal of first-class material from the previous year, the thinclads literally sailed through city and district competition. In each event nearly all competing were juniors or underclassmen, with only a few seniors occupying regular berths on the squad. Dennis Day, star holdover was constantly the sparkplug of the Tiger juggernaut, winning the 220, anchoring the speed team, and being acclaimed the outstanding 100 yard dash man in the state. In the hurdles, Jim Crumley was top man in the city and district trials. Duane Hall and Milt Boesel topped competition decisively in the middle distances. Hall, with Dan Reed, Chuck Petro, and Carl Thielman dominated the half-mile locally. The two relay teams DeVilbiss High can justly be proud of, as they were both ranked first in the state. The speed team composed of Jack Schulz, Dick Ahrendt, Dan Noyes and Denny Day, unfortunately was nipped at Columbus, and obtained a second. The undefeated mile team components were Milt Boesel, Dick Ahrendt, Dan Noyes, and Duane Hall. In the field events, Jim Maher at the high jump pit, Jim Teegardin at the pole vault, Dick Saxer at the shot and discus, plus others, provided the Tiger squad with points continually throughout the season.

Besides acquiring all honors in city competition, the Tigers also achieved an unusual feat—that of winning all the major track meets throughout the state including the Wesleyan Relays, the DeVilbiss Night Relays, the Miami University Relays, the district meet, and ultimately, the state meet at Columbus.

In winning the state finals, the cindermen staged a great finish to come out on top. Capitalizing on brilliant wins in the last two events, the boys succeeded in capturing the large gold trophy. Denny Day, in the 220, was finally picked as the winner by a committee of judges, so close was the finish. Needing only one more first to win the meet, the mile relay team of Boesel, Ahrendt, Noyes and Hall dominated rugged competition to win over Cleveland East Rhodes by a second.

The Tigers copped several firsts at Ohio Wesleyan showing superior balance to come out on top at the relays, which were held in zero weather —a real obstacle to any runner. Then for the next triumph, the team literally swamped all opposition to gain the trophy at the Night Relays, another frigid night affair. Continuing at a terrific pace, they went to Oxford, Ohio, there again putting the winning trophy in our case by a goodly margin of 48 to 31. The district meet was completed in grand style, the thinclads taking a number of firsts, displaying talent preliminary to the state meet at Columbus.

Dennis Day, Duane Hall, Dan Noyes, Dick Ahrendt, Milt Boesel, Jack Schulz and Jim Crumley were honored by being placed on the all-Ohio State High School Track Squad. With such speedsters as Ahrendt, Noyes, Crumley, Hall and others returning, Norm Pollman is again expecting great things in track.

Baseball, having been discontinued for a number of years, was resumed again when Pete Penkoff consented to coach the DeVilbiss squad. Mr. Penkoff deserves a lot of credit for organizing and reestablishing baseball as a primary sport here at DeVilbiss. Displaying an aggressive attack coupled with startling field play, they completely overpowered Perrysburg by a score of eight to one. Waite, annually a strong opponent in baseball, lost the game by a score of five to four.

Central hung a loss on the Tigers' record. In the regional tournament, DeVilbiss again drew Central for a contender, but once again Central upset aspirations for a win by a score of five to four.

GIRLS' SPORTS

It would be hard to imagine what DeVilbiss would be like without the girls' gym. The gym can be compared to a huge tree. The trunk of this tree is the three teachers: Mrs. Terhell, Miss Entemann and Mrs. Neuber; the branches are the varied sports that they teach; while the leaves are the enthusiastic girls who fill the gym every hour of the day.

MISS LOIS ENTEMANN

In the fall the program of activities consists of fieldball and hockey for the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Six weeks are spent on each of the winter sports—basketball, folk dancing, and volleyball. Spring brings such outdoor sports as soft ball and ski ball. Beside these regular sports, the senior girls have been offered this year various elective sports. They have a choice of swimming, horseback riding, or bowling. The gym teachers have started a new system for teaching the gym classes. Instead of having a new gym class every year, the teachers have the same class during its four years at DeVilbiss. Mrs. Terhell has kept the same group of girls, who are now seniors, for the past four years. She and Miss Entemann have divided the present freshman group and each will have her half of the class for the next four years.

MRS. JANE TERHELL

Mrs. Terhell has carried a great load on her very capable shoulders this past year. Along with her regular classes, all the senior girls' elective sports have been under her direction; and she has found time to be adviser of the Leaders' Club. She will tell you that managing the Leaders' Club is quite a task. The leaders have continued the point award system, although the Girls' Athletic Society has been disbanded for this year. On May 29, the leaders have a banquet planned for the senior leaders who will graduate. The girls always remember the senior banquet because it is their last formal gathering of the year.

Anytime one comes into the gym he can see Miss Entemann busily occupied in some activity. Her interest in others and her enthusiasm are some of her striking assets. This year she has had under her direction part of the freshmen girls and all of the junior girls.

A new spark to the staff in the girls' gym is young Mrs. Neuber, who was previously the gym instructor in Maumee High School. Her responsibilities this year have been the sophomore girls and the modified gym classes. In modified gym classes the girls participate in such activities as archery, mass badminton, modified table tennis, checkers, and shuffleboard. Both the teachers and the girls will agree that Mrs. Neuber is a great asset to our teaching staff.

Whiz! Zoom! "There goes the ball! I didn't get a pin. I wish I wouldn't have so many gutter balls." This occurrence might be duplicated any Monday after school at the Colony Bowling Alleys. That is the place where about one hundred enthusiastic senior girls try to improve their bowling averages and their bowling form. For the first time in several years bowling is offered to senior girls as an elective sport.

The girls have formed teams of five members and each team elects a captain. The teams play against one another in a tournament and the winning team is determined. Each semester a new tournament is organized. The members of the winning bowling team for the first semester were Pat Bonner, Pat Householder, Doris Kimber, Eleanor Leiner, and Marilyn Sutton. For their fine skill in bowling they were credited with winning the tournament.

Consistently high scores the first semester, in order of their averages, were Helen Starry, Joyce MacKenzie, Marilyn Woodgate, and Ramona Lowe.

The popularity of bowling and the enthusiasm shown by the senior girls insures the fact that bowling will be a senior girls' sport for many years to come.

SWIMMING

Every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon the Y.W.C.A. swimming pool is filled with DeVilbiss Senior girls. About twenty-five seniors belong to each class. Four seniors who have become such excellent swimmers that they are able to take the Life-Saving course are Carolyn Freed, Joan Sutton, Marion Timson, and June Tussing. Pat Berlin, Marcie Keller, Virginia Kitzman, Angela Killenger, Sue Maddock, Julie Miller, and Marie Smith have passed the Senior Life-Saving Test, and are now prepared to be life guards or to teach swimming.

HORSEBACK RIDING

Horseback riding is an additional sport offered to senior girls this year. This is a sport that requires endurance, both on the rider's part and on the horse's part. One group of seniors taking horseback riding meets on Monday and another group meets on Wednesday. Both classes meet after school at the Ascot Stables and are under the instruction of Mel Wilson. The girls ride on the excellent trails behind the stables. Some of the students have become so expert that they will learn jumping techniques this spring.

If you have walked past the girls' gym any Thursday after school you have probably heard a great commotion. The reason? The G.A.S. leaders. The leaders meet every Thursday in the gym and challenge one another to a rousing game of basketball, volley ball, hockey, or any one of the popular sports. This is one way for them to use up some of their excess energy.

During the week when they have their study periods, the leaders help the gym teachers with their classes. The girls earn points for doing this leading. This is the manner in which they earn their numerals, chevrons, and best of all, a "D".

Get that point!

Co-ordination required!

Ready! Aim! Fire! or Bullseye???

Every little bit counts!

Poise brings perfection!

Watch that ball!

Beginner's Luck

• The girl who starts in telephone work finds real beginner's luck.

She learns her job pleasantly with other beginners just like herself—possibly from her own school. She works in light, airy offices with the latest in equipment. She relaxes in beautiful lounges with friendly co-workers.

She takes home a good-sized weekly paycheck which she knows will increase steadily through scheduled raises. Her supervisors are congenial and understanding. They reached supervisory levels from beginning jobs just like hers. Promotions are made from within the ranks and today's greatly increased traffic has speeded up these promotions.

The telephone beginner strikes it lucky because she has chosen a company which earned its reputation for being "a good place to work".
